

Per Strategic Decisions 2020 and Institutional practice:

“At levels ranging from daily interactions to formal expectations, members of the NTID community will demonstrate fundamental respect for the language and communication preferences and needs of one another. ...

To maintain open, respectful communication at NTID and to maximize student learning, faculty and staff are committed to signing in public places.... The goal framing this commitment is 100% signing in public spaces.”