ACADEMIC CONVOCATION – Friday, May 11, 10:00 a.m.  Gordon Field House and Activities Center (GOR)
Academic Convocation is a university celebration of graduates from all nine RIT colleges, the School of Individualized Study, and the Golisano Institute for Sustainability. The program features remarks by RIT President David C. Munson, Jr., undergraduate student delegate speaker, Ms. Ethelia Lung (CIAS), graduate student delegate speaker, Ms. Susan Wiley (GIS) and the 2018 Commencement Speaker. Ph.D. candidates will be hooded at this ceremony. The Convocation will last about 2 hours.
- Line-up is at 9:00 a.m., lower level of the Field House and the Student Life Center. Look for the RED balloons for CLA line-up location. Wear your cap and gown.
- Allow extra travel time and check the RIT Bus Schedules.
- Do not bring or plan to leave valuables as the line-up area is not secure.
- With the exception of Ph.D. candidates, students do not walk across the stage at this event.
- Tickets are not required and there is no limit to the number of guests who may attend.
- Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis.
- Overflow seating is available in the Gene Polisseni Center where the ceremony will be live streamed.

CLA Commencement Ceremony

Undergraduate and Master's Degree Candidates

- RIT's regalia is made in the USA of 100% post-consumer recycled plastic bottles.
- There is no charge for the regalia and it is yours to keep or recycle (undergraduate and master's level students only). You do not need to place an order or be measured.
- Pick up your regalia between Monday, April 23 and Saturday, May 12, 2018 at the Textbook Information desk on the 2nd floor of the college bookstore, Barnes & Noble @ RIT during store hours - Monday - Saturday, 9 a.m.-8 p.m. and Sunday, 11 a.m.-5 p.m.
- If you cannot pick up your regalia, a friend or relative may do so for you. They will need to know:
  - your first and last name
  - height and approximate weight
  - college you are graduating from (i.e. CLA)
  - type of degree you are receiving (i.e. bachelor's, or master's)
  - Undergraduates only: if you are graduating with academic honors (cum laude, magna cum laude, and summa cum laude). Note: this is different from being in the RIT Honors Program.
- All cords, stoles, and sashes representing anything other than academic honors are distributed through the awarding department or organization, e.g. Study Abroad stoles are ordered from the RIT Global Offices.
- If you are not in the Rochester area, please contact the bookstore at regalia@rit.edu to arrange for shipping (they will e-mail you an order form). Your order must be received no later than Friday, April 27, 2018 to ensure it arrives in time for graduation.
- There is no charge for the regalia; however, there is a shipping fee of $8.10 to ship to the lower 48 states. (Shipping outside the lower 48 will need a price quote.)
- A bookstore staff member will be at every line up to assist graduating students with their regalia and you can check out these how-to videos for bachelor’s and master’s, graduates.

Apply for Graduation!

You must “Apply for Graduation” in the Student Information System (SIS). This will initiate the review of your academic record for certification. You can’t graduate without this!

If you want your name to appear in the Commencement Program Book and on the Commencement website, you must “Apply for Graduation” by April 1, 2018.

Be sure to complete the “Diploma Name” section!

Graduation Announcements & Class Rings

Generic graduation announcements are available at Barnes & Noble @ RIT bookstore. They can be purchased in the RIT Gift Dept. on the 1st floor or by calling 585-424-6766, ext. 205. Generic announcements are sold 10/pk.

Personalized graduation announcements and rings can be ordered from Balfour at www.balfour.com or by calling 1-877-225-3687. Balfour reps will be on campus Tuesday, March 20 - Wednesday, March 21, 2018, 1-4 p.m. in the SAU near the RIT Photo Store & Artesano Bakery. This will be the LAST CHANCE to order RIT rings and personalized announcements in time for graduation delivery. During Commencement Weekend they'll be at the Barnes & Noble at RIT Bookstore at Park Point: Friday, May 11, 2018 - 2:00 p.m.-6:00 p.m. and Saturday, May 12, 2018 - 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

Photographs

GradImages is the official photographer for Commencement. You will be photographed on and upon exiting the stage. There is no obligation to purchase photographs. Pre-register at GradImages.com/Preregistration to view your proofs and receive a coupon for 20% off. You may register e-mails of up to six loved ones who would like to view and order photos. Proofs will be ready to view online within 48 hours of the ceremony. Photos may be ordered online, by phone, or by mail. If you have any questions, please contact Customer Service at 800-261-2576 or by e-mail at giservice@gradimages.net.

DVDs of Academic Convocation and College Ceremonies

DVDs of each college ceremony and the Academic Convocation are available for purchase. The DVD for each college ceremony includes all platform speeches and the individual recognition of graduates. The DVD for the Academic Convocation includes the official conferral of degrees as well as all platform speeches.

Individual college ceremony and Academic Convocation DVDs are $26.00 each or you can purchase both together for $42.00, a savings of $10.00. All prices include tax and shipping. DVDs can be purchased at ceremony locations during Commencement Weekend. You may also order by:

- phone (585-475-2516)
- Online
- Download paper form

Orders received and postmarked prior to May 16, 2018 will ship by the end of June. All orders received after May 16th must be submitted online and will be charged a late production fee of $3.00.
Parking & Transportation Services

Convocation will be held in the Gordon Field House (labeled GOR on campus maps) and the CLA Commencement Ceremony in the Gene Polisseni Center (labeled POL). Upon arrival at RIT, please use the entrances on Jefferson Road. RIT Public Safety personnel will direct you to parking areas. You can view an interactive map which shows the location of RIT parking lots.

Shuttle bus service will be available Friday, 7:00 a.m.-9:30 p.m. and Saturday, 6:30 a.m.-6 p.m. to transport guests from parking lots to the Academic Convocation, college ceremonies and most reception locations. Please note your bus stop number and parking lot letter when boarding your bus. Get real-time bus information with the RIT Mobile App or go to m.rit.edu. For more information about parking and shuttle, contact Adam Petzold at appfms@rit.edu.

Disabled Parking: G Lot is the primary lot, however limited disabled parking will be available in U Lot adjacent to the Gene Polisseni Center (POL). To enable us to best serve your needs, please submit our Accessible Parking Request Form (even if you have a disabled parking permit). See also the Accessibility section below.

Interpreting Services

The Academic Convocation and all college ceremonies will be American Sign Language interpreted and real-time captioned. The Gordon Field House and Activities Center and the Gene Polisseni Center are equipped with an FM hearing assistance system. Receivers will be available at the ticket office in the Field House and at Guest Services in the Gene Polisseni Center.

Accessibility

Special Seating Needs
Both the Gordon Field House and Activities Center and the Gene Polisseni Center are accessible to those with special needs; however, guest seating is primarily in the bleachers which have steps. Our ushers will find seats of the floor together for your guests; however, please note that special needs seating is neither reserved nor guaranteed. We recommend that those with special seating needs arrive 2 hours in advance of the Academic Convocation and 90 minutes in advance of the college ceremony they plan to attend.

Wheelchairs
We do not have wheelchairs available on campus. You may rent wheelchairs from Monroe Wheelchair at 888-546-8595, Fonte Surgical Supply at 585-338-1000, or Westside Medical Supply at 585-227-8750.
Mobility Carts
A limited number of golf carts operated by staff will be available to help elderly guests and others needing mobility assistance. This is a limited service and we ask that guests not requiring extra assistance please respect the needs of those that do. For safety reasons, carts will not take on passengers until crowds have cleared the building entrances after ceremonies. Please be aware that you may have to wait for up to 15 minutes for a mobility cart immediately prior to and after the Academic Convocation and college ceremonies when demand is at its highest. Thank you for your patience.

Walking Around Campus
Please advise your guests that campus is large and considerable walking is involved from shuttle stops to ceremony and reception locations. We encourage everyone to wear comfortable shoes! Consult the RIT interactive map for walking directions on campus.

Wi-Fi
People without an RIT username can connect to the "RIT-Guest" wireless network. Please note the following about this service:
- Guests must have a phone number capable of receiving text messages in order to register (carrier text message rates may apply).
- Students, employees, and others with RIT computer accounts should continue to use the encrypted “RIT” wireless network.
- RIT-Guest access prohibits access to some internal RIT network resources.

If you have any questions about guest wireless at RIT, please contact the ITS Service Desk at servicedesk@rit.edu or 585-475-4357. Students and staff of other universities may be eligible to access the internet via eduroam. Please visit the eduroam site for information.

Dining on Campus
RIT Dining Services facilities and concessions stands will be open throughout the day on Friday and Saturday. Hours, location and menu information can be found at on their website.

Flowers & Commemorative T-shirts
Flowers and RIT Commemorative T-shirts, with the names of all graduates, will be for sale at both the Gordon Field House and Activities Center and the Gene Polisseni Center during Commencement Weekend. Flower and shirt sales benefit the RIT Student Music Association. You may pre-order flowers and shirts here.
Lost and Found

For lost items, please check the ticket booth in the main lobby of the Gordon Field House and Activities Center and at Guest Services at the Gene Polisseni Center. All items will be taken to Public Safety in Grace Watson Hall (GWH) at the end of each day. Call 585-475-2853 for assistance.

Questions?

Before Commencement

- Academic questions should be directed to your academic department or your college’s Commencement Liaison.
- For commencement questions, e-mail academicaffairs@rit.edu or call 585-475-5334.

During Commencement Weekend

- Information Booths will be located throughout campus for your assistance. In addition, volunteers wearing yellow ribbons will be happy to assist you.
- TEXT RITGRAD to 888777 to receive important updates throughout Commencement Weekend. Subscribers will receive event information, as well as safety, weather, traffic and emergency alerts from RIT. Your subscription is anonymous and you will be automatically unsubscribed from the service at the end of the weekend. You can unsubscribe at any time by replying STOP.
- All of the information in this newsletter and more is available on our mobile friendly website http://www.rit.edu/commencement. Bookmark it, get the RIT Mobile App for Apple and Android devices, or go to m.rit.edu.
