

CONNECTING CAMPUS TO COMMUNITY SYMPOSIUM

Engaged Teaching, Research and Scholarship with the City of Rochester

MAY 27 9:30AM – 3:00PM

MAY 28 8:45AM – 12:15PM

Keynote Timothy Eatman

Assistant Professor, Syracuse University and Co-Director of Imagining America
imaginingamerica.org

Want to learn more about a new opportunity for faculty scholarship that connects RIT to the greater Rochester community and meet new collaborators?

Join your faculty colleagues for a 2-day workshop on engaged scholarship with keynote Timothy Eatman, Co-Director, Imagining America, and Assistant Professor, Syracuse University.

What's in it for you:

- Learn about engaged research, teaching and scholarship
- Explore ways to enhance your professional portfolio
- Build collaborative community partnerships
- Be a part of a national and international movement in higher education
- Hear lessons learned from an RIT faculty panel conducting engaged teaching and research
- Develop a framework of best practices for community engagement.

City Commissioner Marisol Lopez from Mayor Lovely Warren's administration will be the keynote speaker on day 2 to address expectations for collaborative partnerships within the Rochester community and particularly with city government. Opportunities and possibilities for research will be presented by city officials followed by a labinar style discussion on building research partnerships.

You don't want to miss this!

Register soon -- seating is limited. See the attached agenda.

<https://online.rit.edu/events/index.cfm?oneEvent=8062>

Location:
GCCIS Auditorium (Bldg 70)
20 Lomb Memorial Dr.
Rochester, NY

R·I·T

ANNE MARIE CANALE 585.475.7696 AMCTWC@RIT.EDU
CHERYL HERDKLOTZ 585.475.2030 CAHETC@RIT.EDU
PROF. ANN HOWARD 585.475.5104 MAHGSH@RIT.EDU

CONNECTING CAMPUS TO COMMUNITY SYMPOSIUM

AGENDA

Day 1 Symposium – Wednesday, May 27, 2015

Time	Topic
9:30 AM	Registration and Continental Breakfast
10:00	Welcome and Introduction of Keynote Speaker
10:10	Keynote Address: Connecting Campus with Community - Timothy Eatman, co-director, Imagining America
11:00	Break
11:15	Why Engaged Scholarship at RIT? - Report of the Ad Hoc Task Force on Engaged Teaching, Research and Scholarship
12 – 1 PM	Working Lunch - Building a Community of Engaged Scholars
1:00	Break
1:15	RIT Engaged Faculty Panel: Who is Doing Engaged Work in Teaching and Research?
2:15	Break
2:30 – 3:00	Foundations of Engaged Scholarship: The Framework and Best Practices

Day 2 Symposium – Thursday, May 28, 2015

Time	Topic
8:45 AM	Registration & Continental Breakfast
9:15	Welcome and Introduction of Keynote Speakers
9:15	Keynote: Campus Community Partnerships: Opportunities and Expectations - City Commissioner Marisol Lopez
9:45	Break
10:00	Presentations on Research Possibilities – Rochester City Officials
10:45	Break
11:00	Labinars – Building Research Partnerships
12 – 12:15 PM	Next Steps/Follow up on research possibilities

Register today: <https://online.rit.edu/events/index.cfm?oneEvent=8062>

Location: Rochester Institute of Technology, B. Thomas Golisano College of Computing & Information Sciences (Bldg 70), 20 Lomb Memorial Drive, Rochester, NY 14623
(Auditorium-Rm 1400, Atrium, Classrooms)