Faculty Career Development Services (FCDS) is launching a College Collaboration Grant program designed to support activities that are closely aligned with the goals and objectives of FCDS and the RIT community with regard to faculty success, leadership development, mentoring, and promotion and tenure by providing matching funding to RIT’s Colleges for related projects. View application guidelines here.

Questions: Contact Anne.Marie.Canale@rit.edu or Cheryl.Herdklotz@rit.edu.

1. What is your full name?

2. What is your rank?
   - Department Chair/Unit Head
   - Professor
   - Associate Professor
   - Assistant Professor
   - Senior Lecturer/Lecturer

3. What is your College/Academic Unit and Department?

4. What is your proposed project title?
5. Provide a brief description detailing the internal funding need and a description of how the project’s goals will demonstrate broader institutional impact:

6. Provide an outline of the proposed project including corresponding timeframe:

7. Itemize in detail how funds will be used including the total amount you are requesting. General requests without a breakdown of requested funds will not be approved. Note that the following expenses are not allowable: equipment (software or hardware), salaries, add-pay, or stipends for RIT employees, tuition or certification fees for faculty or staff.

8. What is the total amount of funding your College is willing to provide?
9. What is the total amount of funding you are requesting from FCDS?