

Melinda Beyerlein

From: Melinda Beyerlein
Sent: Wednesday, November 04, 2009 11:48 AM
To: Melinda Beyerlein
Subject: Giving Thanks by Giving Back; Volunteer Opportunity for DOC Students

NEWS from the DEPARTMENT of COMMUNICATION

Giving Thanks by Giving Back; Volunteer Opportunity for DOC Students

Bruce A. Austin baagll@rit.edu

4 November 2009

This year you can give Thanks by giving a little of your time to those who are less fortunate. On Thanksgiving Day, Department of Communication volunteers will gather at the Chili Wegmans to help greet and welcome, hand out stuffed animals, serve food and bus trays, to families and individuals attending Nancy B.B. Myers' annual event.

Begun years and years ago and hosted at Nancy's Scottsville home, the event soon attracted so many people that now Wegmans serves as co-sponsor and food provider. People who attend may be unemployed, a veteran, without family or are simply seeking the company of others.

Interested volunteers should arrive at the Chili Wegmans at 11:30 a.m. on Thanksgiving Day, wearing their RIT "colors" and plan to stay for about three hours.

The Wegmans store is located at 3175 Chili Avenue, a 10 minute drive from RIT: Wegmans

Interested? Need more information? Questions? Write Bruce Austin: baagll@rit.edu

An e-newsletter published occasionally by the Department of Communication and distributed to students and their family, alumni, faculty and others who have expressed an interest in communication.

To unsubscribe: msbgpt@rit.edu

Visit our web site at www.rit.edu/communication

