Economics Capstone Experience (ECON 510)

All Economics majors are required to complete a creative capstone experience that may be fulfilled in one of the following five ways:

1. Publish a paper in a refereed journal.

2. Present a paper at a professional conference.

3. Present a paper at an RIT-sponsored conference such as the RIT Undergraduate Research Conference or Economics/Public Policy Research Conference.

4. Present one’s research at an approved exhibit at Imagine RIT.

5. Fulfill a comparable creative capstone requirement in one’s primary major if Economics is the secondary major.
