

Prof. Robert Baker & Dr. Anastasia Pease (Union College)

Designing an Ethics Across the Curriculum Program

This paper, written by the initiative's program director and the philosopher who chairs it, reflects on two different approaches to ethics across the curriculum evident both in the literature and on the Society of Ethics Across the Curriculum Website -- an applied moral philosophy approach (AMP) and a practical skills (PS) approach -- and explains why they chose the PS approach. It also presents the results of the program's first operational year.