INFO

- Facilitated by the Associate Deans, the Assistant Vice President and Registrar, Joe Loffredo will attend individual meetings in the nine RIT Colleges, as well as CMS and Student Affairs during the first two weeks of October. The GeneSIS project and the Semester Conversion project will reach a convergence point as recently redesigned course records are loaded into the new Student Information System (SIS) as part of the GeneSIS project Go Live 1. Although the legacy SIS system will still be in use by the campus, academic scheduling officers have been working closely with the Registrar’s office to load in excess of 3,000 semester and quarter based courses. To ensure appropriate transparency and informative preparation for the changes to come, Joe’s meetings will offer administrators, faculty, staff and advisors in the colleges the opportunity to learn more about course changes, code changes, the Sem Con database project [created by Software Engineering students to ingest Semester Conversion Course Outline Forms, SIS Academic Structure, the Fall 2012 course schedule and an initiative for creating scheduling info for the Fall 2013 course schedule.

For others who are also interested in this information as well as for faculty and advisors who cannot attend the special In College Communication meetings, there are also two Open Information Sessions being offered to the campus community:
