- Addressing Essential Program Outcomes in semester courses
  During program redesign for semester conversion, RIT’s Essential program Outcomes (EPOs) were mapped to specific courses in each program. To assist faculty with course conversion, Teaching & Learning Services has developed strategies that they can use to address the EPOs while redesigning courses for semesters. You can see these strategies, along with other information about RIT’s Essential Program Outcomes at http://wallacecenter.rit.edu/tls/rit-essential-program-outcomes.
