FACULTY POSITION IN LIBERAL ARTS AT RIT DUBAI

Rochester Institute of Technology, Dubai is seeking applications for a full-time position within the Department of Liberal Arts and Sciences, beginning August 2016. Teaching responsibilities will include electives in the instructor’s field of expertise, and possibly the introductory Writing Seminar. An important criterion will be the ability to offer courses approved for RIT’s Perspective and Immersion requirements in the liberal arts fields (see: http://www.rit.edu/programs/immersions). Therefore candidates holding degrees in fields such as economics, English, anthropology, international relations, foreign languages and literature, and others will be considered. Willingness and qualifications to teach introductory writing is desirable but not required. The teaching load is 12-15 hours per semester. MA in a liberal arts field is required, PhD preferred; rank will depend on qualifications. Experience at an overseas English-language institution would be welcome. The initial contract is for three years. RIT Dubai is closely affiliated with RIT’s main campus in New York and offers a highly competitive salary, housing allowance, and medical benefits.
