STUDY ABROAD AT RIT CROATIA IN THE SPRING SEMESTER
RIT Croatia offers programs at two campuses:

- in the coastal resort city of Dubrovnik
- country's capital, Zagreb

RIT Croatia offers three undergraduate programs: International Hospitality and Service Management, International Business and Web and Mobile Computing and Master of Science program in Service Leadership and Innovation
Students typically take a minimum of 12 credits (4 courses) during their academic term abroad. Your department advisor can review and pre-approve the RIT courses offered at RIT Croatia to ensure that you stay on track with your individual degree program.

Courses are available in:
- Accounting
- Computing
- Travel/Tourism
- Information Technology
- Hospitality & Service Management
- Mathematics
- Modern Languages
- Liberal Arts
- Philosophy

International Business
Information Technology
Mathematics
Ecology
Statistics
Modern Languages
Psychology
Macroeconomics
Environmental Science
Program fee $2780,00 for Dubrovnik campus and $3340,00 for Zagreb campus.

Additional estimated expenses: $3000,00

- Round trip airfare, Meals, Textbooks, Visa process (if applicable)
- Other miscellaneous personal expenses
- Housing in private accommodation
- Full on-site support
- Cultural experience field trips
- Student peer mentor

Application deadline October 15th, 2017
Summer Psychology in Croatia

- Arrival May 20th 2018
- five weeks studying
- Earn 6 credits

Zagreb, Croatia

2 courses
- PSYC 221 - Abnormal Psychology
- PSYC 239 - Positive Psychology

- one-week course-integrated study tour
  Travel to Austria and Germany
RIT CROATIA
Don Frana Bulića 6
20 000 Dubrovnik
www.croatia.rit.edu

Study Abroad Office
Tel. +385(0)20 433 000
Fax. +385(0)20 433 001
E-mail: sa@croatia.rit.edu

Mrs. Petra Vodopija Borković
petra.vodopija-borkovic@croatia.rit.edu