Lean Six Sigma
An integrated approach led by experienced RIT instructors

Training & Consulting
Yellow, Green, Black Belt
Master Black Belt
Sponsor Training

Academics
Advanced Certificate in LSS
LSS Fundamentals
Advanced Statistics Courses

RIT | Kate Gleason
College of Engineering
Interactive Training & Consulting for Organizations & Individuals

On-campus, On-site, On-line

Gaining Commitment
- Management Overview
  - ½ to 1 ½ days
  - LSS Overview
  - LSS Deployment Strategies
  - Project Selection
  - Developing a LSS culture
  - Project Identification & prioritization
  - Organizing for continuous improvement
  - Communications plan

Awareness Building
- Yellow Belt Training
  - 3 days
  - 20% of workforce
  - Teams of 4-5 develop project charger
  - Overview of LSS
  - Problem solving skills & tools
  - Development of productive teams

Skill Building
- Green Belt Training
  - 12 days over 3 months
  - 10% of workforce
  - Team project
  - Lead small & medium projects
  - Work with Black Belts on larger projects

Mastery
- Sponsor Training
  - ½ to 1 day
  - Managers & Supervisors
  - Overview of LSS
  - Toll-gate review skills

- Black Belt Training
  - 12 days over 3 months
  - 1% of workforce
  - Advanced project
  - After certified typically spend 50-100% time on projects
  - Future leaders

Projects Reinforce Learning
All Green and Black Belts complete a project of significant value – RIT instructors provide mentoring throughout the process

Contact CQAS at: cqas@rit.edu
(585) 475-5442
www.rit.edu/cqas