

One-Session Courses

June, 2012

Monday 11:15 am – 12:45 pm

Title: "Everything You Need to Know to Get Started with eBooks"

Date: June 4th

Leader: Peter Luce is a new Kindle user.

Description: Want to learn more about eBooks and how to download eBooks from the public library? Do you have an eReader or tablet? Did you know that the Rochester Public Library has free Kindle and Nook eBooks? Learn how to download eBooks, use Overdrive and find digitized local history items on the Monroe County Library System website. We will be joined by Jennifer Paxson, an Adult Services Librarian. Jennifer teaches adults with beginner to intermediate skill levels how to use computers. She is a member of the Emerging Technology Committee. The ETC teaches new technology to librarians.

Title: "Mayan Prophecies: Truth or Not?"

Date: June 4th

Leader: Steven D. Barley, Ed.D has studied extensively on the subject of the Mayan Prophecies. In addition, he and his wife have traveled to the Yucatan and toured many Mayan Ruins.

Description: The Mayan Prophecies of 12/20/2012 have been in the news eliciting many questions and some controversy. This course discusses the Mayan Prophecies with an inventory of the practices of the Maya, the Prophecy itself, their very origins, and world view. Using the textbook by David Douglas, we will explore the Mayan calendar and its message in depth. Is it to be an apocalypse or a new beginning? A disaster or an awakening?

Title: "The Best Elected Officials Money Can Buy"

Date: June 11th

Leader: Al Kremer