Submit your nominations for the 2012-2013 Richard and Virginia Eisenhart Provost’s Award for Excellence in Teaching AND The Outstanding Teaching Award for Non-Tenure-Track Faculty today!

The Outstanding Teaching Award for Non-Tenure-Track Faculty recognizes excellence in teaching by non-tenure-track teaching faculty at RIT who have made a significant commitment to students at RIT. Candidates must be non-tenure-track teaching faculty at RIT as defined in E6.0 – Policies on Faculty Rank and in each of the three consecutive years preceding the nomination has either 1) taught at least four courses over the span of an academic term, or 2) taught at least four courses over the span of an academic year. The candidate shall not have been a recipient of this award in the preceding seven years.

This award will be given at the annual Celebration of Teaching and Scholarship which also honors the recipients of the Eisenhart Award for Outstanding Teaching, the Richard and Virginia Eisenhart Provost’s Award for Excellence in Teaching, and the Trustees Scholarship Award. Formal recognition will take place at the Academic Convocation.

The Richard and Virginia Eisenhart Provost's Award for Excellence in Teaching provides recognition as well as encouragement by peers and students to a faculty member with three years or less teaching experience at RIT who has made a distinct difference in the climate of the college in such areas as model classroom teaching, campus leadership, pioneering teaching methodology, creative course development and/or instructional support. Nominees must have three years or less teaching experience at RIT by June 30 of the year previous to the review process (i.e. hired academic year 2009-2010 or after).

Submit your nominations for both awards by Friday, October 19, 2012. Please e-mail your nominations to academicaffairs@rit.edu. Your nomination must include the title of the award for nomination, a brief statement outlining the specific reasons for your nomination and your nominee's name, department, college, and contact information (phone number and e-mail address).

Please post and/or share this announcement with students and colleagues who may not have access to this e-mail. If you have any questions, e-mail academicaffairs@rit.edu. Thank you!
