Winter Quarter, Week 1

- Christmas/Holiday party. Dec 12, at Lili’s house. We’ll have board games, movies, white elephant/yankee swap. Will be in the evening. More info to come.

- There is a Western show at Caz this Saturday (12/5). Email Ellen if you want to show/come support the team!

- English lessons for this quarter will start next week. We don’t have any lessons scheduled yet.

- If you want to order any t-shirts, let Erin know how many/what size. They make great Christmas gifts!

- We are looking into doing a candy fundraiser this quarter. We will buy boxes of candy from BJ’s and sell the candy for a dollar. If you are interested, email Erin.

- Dues for fall quarter need to be paid if you want an active member status. If you did fundraising for the silent auction/raffle, you do not owe anything. If not, email Allison to find out how much you owe.

- We are thinking about having presentations after meetings about horse related topics. Liz sent out an email with a quick survey to see if there is any interest in this idea. These don’t need to be anything formal, can be about anything horse related. Will get points for presenting a topic.
