Position Title:
Physics Program Graduate Assistant

Department:
Academic Support Center

Position Description:
Join a team of students and faculty/staff to assist in code development tasks and curriculum design related to creating visualization tools exemplifying physics concepts.

Qualifications:
• Familiarity with object oriented programming
• Ability to utilize and extend interfaces and libraries
• Ability to program in Java or willingness to learn

Terms for Employment:
• Must be a full-time student, matriculated in a Masters or PhD degree program.

Duties and Responsibilities:
Performs professional-level administrative support functions or special projects for an academic department. Assumes responsibility for carrying out a project in an office with other students

Application Process:
Please send letter of interest and resume to Burair Kothari at bkkasc@rit.edu.