- Search over 95% of the library's content
- Explore research across disciplines

A screenshot of a search bar interface. The search bar is a white rectangular box with a thin orange border, set against a light beige background. Inside the box, the text "search articles, journals, books, media, and more" is displayed in a light gray font. To the right of the text, there is a small gray square button containing a white magnifying glass icon.
