November 2015

Native American Heritage Month

11/3 TUES
NAHM Kick-Off Celebration
Fireside Lounge | 12:00 PM - 2:00 PM
RIT student clubs, the Native American Student Association (NASA) and the American Indian Science and Engineering Society (AISES), invite you to join them as they kick off Native American Heritage Month with an afternoon of fun. The event includes music, crafts, and food! The event is open to everyone!

11/4 MON
A Thousand Roads (film)
MOSAIC Center | 12:00 PM - 1:30 PM
As the signature film for the National Museum of the American Indian, A Thousand Roads offers a panhemispheric journey covering the Americas from Alaska to Peru and the Navajo Nation to Manhattan. Four Native Americans—a Mohawk stockbroker, a Navajo gangbanger, a Quechuan healer, and a young Inupiat girl—go about their daily lives with remarkable grace. Lunch provided.

11/11 WED
Canandaigua Treaty Day Parade
Canandaigua, NY | 12:30 PM - 3:30 PM
The Canandaigua Treaty brought about peace between the Six Nations and the U.S. Each year representatives march to the courthouse to commemorate the agreement made between the two nations. Students interested in attending, please email ndsfsp@rit.edu.

11/13 FRI
RIT Rock Your Mocs!
RIT Campus | All Day
“Rock Your Mocs” is a social movement across the U.S. designed to raise awareness of Indigenous people. As part of Native American Heritage Month, we encourage the RIT Native community to wear your traditional moccasins all day to show your “Native Pride.”

11/16 MON
Iroquois Creation Story (film) Lunch & Discussion
Vignelli Center | 12:00 PM - 2:00 PM
This 17 minute film is a collaboration between the Friends of Ganondagan, the Garth Fagan Dance, RIT’s School of Film & Animation, and G. Peter Jemison. The animated film tells the ancient Iroquois Creation Story that has been passed down through generations. Director Cat Ashworth and G. Peter Jemison will join us for a discussion regarding the film and the process of creating this animated film. RSVP Required, email Nicole Scott (ndsfsp@rit.edu) for more information.
