

RIT Faculty-Led
Study Abroad Program

ROME: EXAMINING ART & DESIGN IN THE ETERNAL CITY

SUMMER 2022

PROGRAM DATES:
July 1 - July 14, 2022

CREDITS: 3

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Examine art, design, architecture, urban spaces, and archaeological sites that are relevant to the history and culture of Rome.
- Learn representational techniques for documenting aspects of place through sketching, collage, writing, and comparative analysis.
- Visit inspiring sites from Ancient and Medieval Rome, the Renaissance, and the Baroque periods.
- Day trips to see additional sites of interest including those in Florence, Orvieto, and Pompeii.

No pre-requisites. Open to all undergraduate and graduate students.
No Italian language required - program is taught in English.

COURSE:

- IDEA 590 - Rome: Examining Art & Design in the Eternal City (undergrad)
- IDEA 690- Rome: Examining Art & Design in the Eternal City (grad)

Application deadline:
February 20, 2022

For more information:
Contact the Faculty Director,
Marissa Tirone (mxtfaa@rit.edu)

To apply:

Go to studyabroad.rit.edu and log into the Compass.