Please note: If you are receiving financial aid for this program, it will pay out the term you are receiving credits, not necessarily the term of travel if those terms are different. Also, students are still required to pay RIT health and activity fees while they are studying abroad. Prices are subject to change. When you confirm your participation in this program, you will sign a contract in the compass that outlines the payment process and cancellation policies. Please read this carefully.

Cancellation note: Please be aware of and understand the cancellation policy. Cancellation fees may apply if you decide to cancel your program after being accepted and confirming your participation.

A) Airfare quote is for a round trip ticket from Rochester, NY

B) housing cost is based on average rent of 350.00 Euros per month

C) For RIT processing, graduate school applications and job applications, students may need to request a WES credential evaluation which translates your overseas transcript to U.S. terms. For more information visit: wes.org.

D) Cost is for German health insurance, estimated at 80 Euros per month. It is mandatory for students to be covered by medical insurance while in country. Students may be able to opt out of purchasing German health insurance by showing proof of coverage under RIT's emergency medical insurance provider On Call International.

E) One-time payment of semester fee of 167.24 Euros for Wurzburg campus. The semester fee for Schweinfurt campus is 109.50 Euros. This fee includes the semester ticket, which entitles students to free use of the transport system in the city of residence.

Please note: USD costs are based on conversion from Euros on September 5, 2023
