⚠ Tips for searching for courses:

- Use the Keywords field to search for specific course names.
- For the Programs field, begin typing the name of the study abroad program to display a list of programs with a similar name.
- Click on the name of the course to see more information about the course.
- New courses are being added to this list all the time. If you don't see a course you need, submit a new course request by using the My Study Abroad Courses tab.
- You can only add a course if you have an application started for the study abroad program that offers that course.

NOTE: The RIT Global Education Abroad office will facilitate the process of receiving the course equivalency decision but this decision does not guarantee that the course will fulfill a degree requirement. You should work with your academic advisor to ensure that the equivalent course will fulfill a degree requirement.

7. Look for study abroad courses that interest you and could potentially fulfill classes you still need to take at RIT. The “Foreign Course” column is the name of the study abroad course you would take abroad and the “Local Course” column is the name of the RIT course that is equivalent to the study abroad course.
 - a. Make sure the courses you are considering are still being offered on your affiliate provider’s website – it is possible the course has been reviewed in the past, but is no longer being offered on your affiliate study abroad program.

9. If you cannot find the study abroad course(s) that you are looking for in the Study Abroad Course Equivalencies tab, then continue on to Part 2 for that particular course.

Part 2: Submitting NEW study abroad courses for review in the RIT Compass

If the courses you’d like to take abroad are not already part of the Study Abroad Course Equivalencies database, you will need to submit courses for review.

Note: that it can take about 4 weeks for courses to be approved.

1. Log in to the Compass
2. Start an application for the study abroad program that is offering the study abroad course you want approved
3. Click on Step 3 Submit Courses for Approval in the application
4. Click on the My Study Abroad Courses tab
5. Click the dropdown menu next to Foreign Course and select “Other”
6. Use the information from the study abroad program’s website to complete the intake form with as much information as possible and click Submit. The course will display as Pending in your My Study Abroad Courses tab. Repeat this step for each course you would like to have approved.

7. It typically takes 3-4 weeks for a course approval decision to be made. Approval decisions will be updated on the My Study Abroad Courses tab as they become available.
8. There will be no email communication when a course is approved. Instead, both students and academic advisors will have access to the My Study Abroad Courses tab to check the status of each course approval.

The credits you earn on this program are guaranteed to be accepted here at RIT and will be graded pass/fail, though it is up to you to work with your Academic Advisor to ensure that they count toward your degree program.

In addition to completing the RIT application, it is VERY important that you ALSO apply to the program of your choice directly through the affiliate. You can access the affiliate's application on their website.

Meet with Advisor

In your meeting with our advisor, you will receive a checklist that details ALL of the required application steps to study abroad. This online Compass application is just ONE of several steps necessary. Choose an appointment date/time online or email global@rit.edu.
