

4 Reasons Business students should study abroad

Become more competitive in today's multicultural, global business environment and experience first-hand how the world is interconnected through business.

Business students with study abroad experience are more likely to be hired over those who have not studied abroad.*

Study abroad graduates earn an average of 25% more and are more likely to be promoted than their peers.*

Explore the unexpected, take on new challenges and add a global perspective to what you learn in the classroom.

When You Should Go

The Saunders study abroad pathway identifies the optimal time for students to study abroad as their 2nd or 3rd year. However, work with your academic advisor to determine the best timing for you.

Scholarships

RIT Education Abroad Travel Grants ($500-$1,000) are available for global campus, faculty-led or exchange programs.

Merit scholarships for study abroad are available through Saunders. Application deadline in February. Contact Peter Rosenthal (prosenthal@saunders.rit.edu) for more information.

Financial aid and many more scholarships available! Ask a study abroad advisor for more details.
