

Fram Focus volume 3:1 / August 2017 – Fram Faculty Fellow Dr. Adrienne Decker

In this issue:

- 2017 Fram Faculty Fellow
- Co-Sponsored Event with Gray Matter
- A Few Thoughts: Adrienne Decker
- From Gene Fram: Articles on utilizing your college major and changing demand for core skills in jobs of the future

Dr. Adrienne Decker, Fram Faculty Fellow in Applied Critical Thinking

It is my distinct pleasure to welcome you to the first issue of the Fram Focus for the 2017-2018 academic year. I am very excited to be working with Dr. Jennifer Schneider, the Fram Chair in Applied Critical Thinking, on many exciting projects and events in this upcoming year and look forward to meeting with and talking to members of the university community about critical thinking.

Co-Sponsored Events

Gray Matter is a discussion series designed by RIT faculty, students and staff to promote critical exploration of provocative topics related to higher education and the RIT campus community.

“Failure, Fear & Fault: Is something wrong with you?”

Date: Friday, September 15, 2017
Time: 12:00 pm – 1:00 pm
Place: MOSAIC Center (above Ben & Jerry's)

A Few Thoughts

With this issue of the Fram Focus we meet Adrienne Decker, another of RIT's notable critical thinkers.

Adrienne Decker is working with Dr. Jennifer Schneider as the Fram Faculty Fellow in Applied Critical Thinking and is an Associate Professor of Interactive Games & Media in the B. Thomas Golisano College of Computing & Information Sciences. Read Here answers to a few critical questions HERE!

From Gene Fram

Read an article by Fred Dews on Utilizing Your College Major HERE

Read an email from Jeff Selingo on Changing Demand for Core Skills in Jobs of the Future HERE