

This message is sent on behalf of Jeremy Haefner, Provost and Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs

Religious and Cultural Observances

Colleagues,

Several cultures and religions have observances and holy days that occur during the fall semester this year. Please use sensitivity and your best judgment regarding accommodating student absences for participation in these religious observances. For a full list, please visit the Multicultural Calendar on the Office of Diversity website.

Any questions regarding the observance of religious or cultural holidays can be directed to Jeffrey P. Hering, director of the Center for Religious Life, at jphcpm@rit.edu.

Thank you in advance for your attention to this timely matter.

Jeremy Haefner
Provost and Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs

For more information on this and other topics, please visit <http://www.rit.edu/provost/>