

The RIT Helen and Frederick Blaessig Annual Memorial Scholarship Application

The RIT Helen and Frederick Blaessig Annual Memorial Scholarship was established by Monroe County Powers Disabled American Veterans (DAV) Chapter 15 in honor of Frederick Blaessig, a 1941 RIT graduate.

A deserving Disabled American Veteran, Spouse, Child, or Grandchild of a Disabled American Veteran, will be selected annually for payment in the following year. The Award recipient will be selected based on demonstrated Academic Excellence and Financial need. Candidates for this award must be registered, matriculated students (Full-time or Part-time) at RIT during the year the award is paid.

To be eligible students must submit a FAFSA, complete this application AND provide documentation from the VA verifying the disabled American Veteran status.
