Part-Time Enrollment for FINAL Term

Student Name _____ University ID _____

For RIT/NTID grants and scholarships, undergraduate students must be enrolled full-time (12 or more credits) each term in courses applicable toward the completion of their degree. However, if students are in their final term and do not need to be full-time to complete their degree requirements, their RIT/NTID grants and scholarships can be prorated based on their remaining coursework needed to graduate. Confirm the following information below.

- Student's final semester/term of study.
- Student's final number of required credits for degree completion.

There is an exception to the above: The proration of RIT/NTID grants and scholarships does not apply to students who have been accepted into an undergraduate Applied Arts and Sciences program on a part-time basis.
