Career Services
In addition to co-op placement assistance, the Office of Career Services and Cooperative Education also provides you:
- Permanent employment search advisement
- Salary and career information
- Interview and resume preparation
- Career counseling
- Two annual university-wide career fairs, plus major-specific career fairs
- Connections with more than 3,000 employer partners that hire RIT students

3,000 paid co-op work assignments have been completed by international students over the past three years.

92% of those are in the U.S. in 44 different states, and eight percent are in six other countries.
