To be considered for financial aid at the Rochester Institute of Technology as a Canadian student, you will need to complete the following steps:

1. Complete this financial aid application and return it directly to the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships at RIT by April 1, 2022. Please be sure to answer all questions and keep a photocopy for your records. Please note that all financial information provided should be converted to U.S. dollars.

2. Financial aid eligibility for the 2022-2023 academic year is based upon parents/student 2020 income. Please complete this application reporting 2020 income information.

3. Students who submit this financial aid application by the April 1 deadline will receive a financial aid award in April (new students) and June (continuing students). Follow instructions to accept your award.

Your financial aid award will outline scholarships, grants, and work-study opportunities for which you should qualify upon completion of the financial aid process. Additional information will be available with your award.
