

Student Achievement Data

Rochester Institute of Technology, Interior Design BFA

It typically takes a full-time student taking approximately 15 credits per semester four years to complete the degree program. The following data was collected using an alumni survey that was administered by RIT's Office of Career Services and Cooperative Education six months after graduation and from RIT's Institutional Research. 17 out of 19 alumni in the Class of 2016 responded to the survey; 19 out of 20 in the Class of 2017; and 9 out of 9 in the Class of 2018.

Student Attrition and Retention

- 86 percent of students admitted in the fall of 2017 returned to the program in the fall of 2018, putting attrition at 14 percent.
- 82 percent of students admitted in the fall of 2016 returned to the program in the fall of 2017, putting attrition at 18 percent.
- 100 percent of students admitted in the fall of 2015 returned to the program in the fall of 2016, putting attrition at 0 percent.

Graduation Rates

- Of the students graduating in 2018, 80 percent graduated in in four years.
- Of the students graduating in 2017, 90 percent graduated in in four years.
- Of the students graduating in 2016, 100 percent graduated in four years.

Acceptance into Graduate Programs

- 0 percent of students who graduated in 2018 applied for graduate school and 0 percent were accepted.
- 0 percent of students who graduated in 2017 applied for graduate school and 0 percent were accepted.

- 6 percent of students who graduated in 2016 applied for graduate school and 6 percent were accepted.

Job Placement Rates

- 100 percent of students who graduated in 2018 are employed in interior design or a related profession.
- 76 percent of students who graduated in 2017 are employed in interior design or a related profession.
- 88 percent of students who graduated in 2016 are employed in interior design or a related profession.