“I chose Saunders because the co-op program would give me the best return on my investment. This allowed me to get professional work experience before graduation, setting me up for potential job opportunities. Saunders is invested in their students.”

Elizabeth Ferrari
Accounting

“RIT and Saunders have equipped me with a technological background that gives me an edge. The clubs and organizations offered me the opportunity to be in leadership roles that simulated professional experiences.”

Danny Lee
Finance, Management Information Systems

“I built a diverse and extensive network with my peers, faculty, and staff members who assisted me in landing positions ranging from Apple to Amazon.”

Karl English
Marketing

All Saunders students complete a one-semester, full-time, paid co-op experience
