

Fram Focus volume 7:3 – October 2021

IN THIS ISSUE:

➤ Co-sponsored Events:

- “Why are you vaccinated, or not?” Friday, November 5, 2021 at 12:00 p.m in the MOSAIC Center. Co-sponsored with Gray Matter.

➤ A Few Thoughts

- Dr. Heath Boice-Pardee, Associate Vice President, Student Affairs
- Amanda Bao, Associate Professor, College of Engineering Technology

➤ Fram Finds:

- Master Class with Celebrity Chef, Gale Gand: Monday, October 11, 2021 from 6:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.
- Brick City Homecoming & Family Weekend: October 15-17, 2021

➤ From Gene Fram:

- 9/11 Was a Terrible Tragedy: It Was Also the Birth of Red Teaming,” by Bryce Hoffman
- “Over 115 Lesson Plans Based on New York Times Articles” by The Learning Network

CO-SPONSORED EVENTS

- “Why are you vaccinated, or not?” Friday, November 5, 2021 at 12:00 p.m in the MOSAIC Center. Co-sponsored with Gray Matter. A facilitated, open dialogue on controversial topics open to the RIT community, practicing “controversy with civility”. Contact: Chris Hinesley, chhgs@rit.edu.

FRAM FINDS

- Master Class with Celebrity Chef, Gale Gand: Monday, October 11, 2021 from 6:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. James Beard Award winner, and former Food Network host, Gale Gand BFA '81 will lead RIT Tigers through a one-hour digital instruction on a savory dish that you can share with family and friends. Registration is required to attend. Register HERE.
- Brick City Homecoming & Family Weekend: October 15-17, 2021. RIT’s tradition of celebrating alumni, students, parents and families, faculty, staff and friends of the University. More information HERE.

A FEW THOUGHTS

In this issue meet:

- Dr. Heath Boice-Pardee, Associate Vice President, Student Affairs. Dr. Boice-Pardee gives his thoughts on problem solving and how it relates to applied critical thinking HERE.
- Dr. Amanda Bao, Associate Professor, College of Engineering Technology. Dr. Bao explains how she uses applied critical thinking in her teaching and everyday life HERE.

FROM GENE FRAM

- 9/11 Was a Terrible Tragedy: It Was Also the Birth of Red Teaming,” by Bryce Hoffman, September 11, 2021. Mr. Hoffman is a bestselling author, speaker and president of Red Team Thinking, LLC. His article discusses how the U.S. government used a systemic way of critical and contrarian thinking as part of a strategic planning process (also known as red teaming) after the events on September 11, 2001. Read more HERE.
- “Over 115 Lesson Plans Based on New York Times Articles” by The Learning Network, The New York Times, July 21, 2021. Every school day, The Learning Network selects a New York Times article and pairs it with critical thinking questions to be featured in their Lesson of the Day. More information HERE.

