

This is one of the three clubmobiles, ambulance station wagon type, presented to the American Red Cross by the American Deaf through the National Association of the Deaf. The American Red Cross uses this type of mobile recreation unit to serve air fields, outposts and bivouac areas in India, the Middle East, North Africa, Sicily, and Great Britain.

—Courtesy of American Red Cross.