at R.I.T Dubai, Techno Hub, Silicon Oasis

R·I·T Dubai

جامعة روتشستر للتكنولوجيا - نيويورك، أمريكا
Rochester Institute of Technology, NY, USA

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Emotional Intelligence and Customer Centricity are key to achieving goals set for Customer Happiness. Excellence in customer service is about creating extraordinary experiences in customer engagement. Customer Centricity focuses on the application of real-life, proven, holistic methods to help organizations develop and cement relationships with external customer and employees, with the goal of increasing customer life time value (LTV).

This program will empower employees with EQ tools to engage customers to create happy experiences, help organizations identify customer touchpoints and create strategies to optimize the “moments of truth”. Well-designed touchpoints enable an experience that creates an enduring positive memory. Delegates will understand how to implement change, develop a distinct culture, and align infrastructure so that everyone contributes to the delivery of customer centricity.
