THE POSITION:

The Department of Business and Management at RIT Dubai invites applications for an Adjunct Faculty position in Management. This teaching-focused role involves delivering up to two undergraduate or graduate-level courses per semester, based on departmental needs. Compensation is provided on a per-course credit basis in accordance with RIT Dubai's adjunct faculty pay structure.

The ideal candidate will bring substantial industry experience in general management, strategy, leadership, or organizational development, with a strong emphasis on the ability to relate practical, real-world scenarios to classroom content. This position is ideal for professionals seeking to contribute to student learning while remaining active in the field.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Teach up to two undergraduate or graduate courses in Principles of Management, Leadership, Organizational Behavior, or Business Development and Planning.
- Deliver engaging and industry-relevant instruction aligned with current business practices.
- Integrate real-world examples, business cases, and industry trends into the curriculum.
- Support the development of student skills in critical thinking, decision-making, and team collaboration.
- Update course materials regularly to reflect emerging developments in management and leadership practices.
- Participate in departmental activities and meetings as required.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS:

- A Master's degree in Management, Business Administration, or a related field from an accredited institution.
- Minimum 5 years of relevant industry experience in general management, strategy, or organizational leadership.
- Demonstrated ability to communicate business concepts clearly and practically.
- Commitment to student engagement and practical, experience-based teaching.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:

- A Ph.D. in Management or a related field.
- Professional certifications or leadership development training (e.g., PMP).
- Previous university-level teaching experience.
- Familiarity with experiential learning, case study methods, and management simulations.
- Involvement with professional management associations or industry networks.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

This position is credit-rate paid, and teaching assignments will be made based on course availability and departmental needs. The contract is semester-based, with the possibility of renewal.

Candidates are invited to submit their applications via email to careersdubai@rit.edu. Please include the following materials:

1. A current CV, detailing industry and teaching experience.
2. A cover letter outlining your professional background and approach to practice-based teaching.
3. Recent student feedback or teaching evaluations (if available).
4. Contact details for two professional references (name, title, institution, email, phone).
5. Any relevant professional certifications or supporting documents.

Subject Line Format of the Application: [Source] – [Your Name] – [Position Title]
Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.
