

Program Level LEARNING OUTCOMES

REQUIRED COURSES AND EXPERIENCES	Curriculum Map: Museum Studies
	Provide historical and theoretical perspectives on the museum as a cultural and social institution with emphasis on histories, functions, and theoretical approaches of museums historically and today.	Provide historical and theoretical perspectives on how museums carry out their primary mission of education through exhibitions and educational programs.	Provide perspectives on digital practices in museums including history, theory, and application.	Provide knowledge, skills, and strategies for professional practice in museums, archives, libraries.	Provide opportunities for experiential learning in museums, historical societies, or other institutions in the service of society that research, interpret, and exhibit tangible and/or intangible heritage.	Provide perspectives on the role and responsibility of museums and museum professionals in the service of society to foster diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging.
MUSE-220 Introduction to Museums	A					A
MUSE-224 History and Theory of Exhibitions		A
MUSE-225 Museums and the Digital Age			A
MUSE-340 Introduction to Archival Studies				A
MUSE-341 Museum Education & Interpretation		A

Program Level LEARNING OUTCOMES

MUSE-354 Exhibition Design		A
MUSE-357 Collections Management & Museum Administration				A
MUSE-359 Digital and Critical Curation			A
MUSE-360 Visitor Engagement & Museum Technologies			A
MUSE-490 Senior Thesis in Museum Studies	A
MUSE-497 Museum Studies Internship					A	A