

Crossword Puzzle

Down:

2. The process of using math and science to create and build structures, products, and systems
5. The foundation of lean manufacturing
10. The process of analyzing work through the time it takes to complete the task and evaluating the motion of worker

Across:

1. The process of observing and measuring work by establishing how much time the work takes to be completed
3. Last name of the couple who created Time and Motion Studies
4. A person that designs, develops, and optimizes systems and processes
6. Person who developed the first moving assembly line
7. Concept of creating more value for customers while using fewer resources
8. Person who invented the Toyota Production System
9. Person who created Scientific Management and developed Time Studies