This edition of the RIT Ready Newsletter focuses on how to report emergencies and get help.

Reporting an emergency or imminent threat: Report any emergency to RIT Public Safety. Also, if you experience, observe or have knowledge of, or perceive an imminent threat of violence on campus, immediately contact the Public Safety Department.

- 585-475-3333 (voice)
- 585-205-8333 (text)
- TigerSafe App – with ‘Mobile BlueLight’ and ‘Say Something’ features

Report behavior concerns at work: Faculty and staff should alert their supervisor and Human Resources Manager of their concern. If an individual's immediate supervisor is the cause for concern, Human Resources will contact the next level of management. Chris Denninger (Director, Threat Assessment and Management Services) can also be contacted to discuss concerning behavioral situations at work which are non-emergencies, as well as reporting options - 585-475-6620 – cgdcps@rit.edu.

Report concerns about a student: The Tiger Concern Report may be used to share concerns about an RIT student’s behavior or health with the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs/Chair of the Student Behavior Consultation Team (SBCT). Expressing concern shortly after an issue is raised or incident has occurred can help with early intervention and success.

Getting Help — You are not alone:

For situations or issues that don’t need and immediate response from Public Safety, there are a number of other resources available:

- C.A.R.E.S. Call or text 585-295-3333 – 24 hour, confidential reporting helpline for incidents related to sexual assault, attempted sexual assault, relationship violence and stalking.
- Center for Residence Life - For students living on campus who may be in distress or conflict.
- Counseling and Psychological Services – Provides assessment for students experiencing a mental health crisis or emergency
- Ombuds Office – Provides confident, neutral, independent and informal assistance to those who have concerns arising from or affecting their work and studies at RIT.

If you need help for a situation that involves sex discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, sexual violence, dating violence or stalking, go to the RIT Title IX web site for campus resources that are available in addition to the ones listed above.
