

The Title IX Coordinator shall consider the following factors when determining whether to proceed with an investigation or against Complainant's wishes:

- a. Whether the Respondent has a history of violent behavior or has a student conduct history;
- b. Whether the incident represents escalation in unlawful conduct from previously noted behavior;
- c. The increased risk that the Respondent will commit additional acts of violence or discrimination;
- d. Whether the Respondent used a weapon or force;
- e. Whether the Complainant is a minor; and
- f. Whether RIT possesses other means to obtain evidence and whether available information reveals a pattern of perpetration at a given location by a particular group

The Complainant will be notified in writing by the Title IX Coordinator if a decision is made to proceed with an investigation.
