Your To Do List

3. Between February 1-11 create your roommate group.

Skip this step if you are going through Room Selection as a single individual.

The student who creates the roommate group is the Group Leader. The Group Leader can invite students to join their roommate group. Share with your preferred roommates the name of your roommate group and they can search for the group and join if they have completed their 2020-2021 housing contract.
Appointment Time

February 14, 2020

Your appointment day and time for selecting your housing will be emailed to you.

Your appointment day and time is the earliest you can sign in to the portal mylife.rit.edu to select your housing assignment.
Selecting Your Room

February 17–28, 2020

Appointment times will begin during this time in February. You have until February 28 to finish selecting your room.

Instructions on how to select your room will be included in the email with your appointment time.

Note: Room Selection on the portal will be grayed out and unavailable to you until your appointment date and time.
More Information

How Appointment Dates/Times are Determined:

• Appointment dates and times are assigned in class standing order with current first-year students going first, followed by second-, third-, fourth-, fifth-, and sixth-year students.

• If you are a current freshman whose class standing has risen above the first-year status due to AP courses or course overloads, for the purpose of Room Selection you will remain in the first-year grouping.

• Within each year level, students will be randomly ordered by a computer program. This random ordering will not occur until the day before appointment times are emailed to students.

• The residence halls, RIT Inn, Perkins Green and Riverknoll apartments, University Commons suites and Global Village suites will be available during room selection.

If you complete a 20-21 RIT housing contract for Room Selection, but do not select a room or add yourself to a waitlist, RIT Housing will add you to a waitlist based on your preferences.
