

By my signature below, I acknowledge that any agreements I have made to restrict my protected health information do not apply to this authorization and I instruct my providers to release and disclose my entire medical record without restriction.

This information is to be disclosed under this authorization so that Prudential may: 1) administer claims and determine or fulfill responsibility for coverage and provision of benefits; 2) obtain reinsurance; 3) administer coverage; and 4) conduct other legally permissible activities that relate to any coverage I have or have applied for with Prudential.

This authorization shall remain in force for 24 months following the date of my signature below, while the coverage is in force, except to the extent that state law imposes a shorter duration. A copy of this authorization is as valid as the original. I understand that I have the right to revoke this authorization in writing, at any time, by sending a written request for revocation to Prudential at: P.O. Box 13480, Philadelphia, PA 19176. I understand that a revocation is not effective to the extent that any of my providers have relied on this authorization to the extent that Prudential has a legal right to contest a claim under an insurance policy or to contest the policy itself. I understand that any information that is disclosed pursuant to this authorization may be redisclosed and not covered by federal rules governing privacy and confidentiality of health information.

I understand that if I refuse to sign this authorization to release the entire medical record, Prudential may not be able to process my claim for benefits and may not be able to make any benefit payments. I understand that I have the right to receive a copy of this authorization.

The statements made by me on this claim are true and complete.

Reporting an Absence or Disability

This guide explains the steps to follow when you are absent from work because of leave or disability. Please detach the Authorization Card and keep the guide for future reference.

When should I report an absence or disability?

First, report your absence for leave or disability to your supervisor. Then report it to Prudential when:

- You will be absent for more than three days and are under a physician's care.
- You are hospitalized for any amount of time.
- You are caring for an ill or injured qualified family member (spouse, parent, or dependent child).
- You are pregnant or are absent from work due to pregnancy complications.
- You will be absent periodically due to a chronic or permanent disabling condition of your own or a qualified family member.
- You are caring for a newborn child, recently adopted child, or new foster child.
- You are absent due to a lost-time, work-related injury—after first reporting it to your supervisor.

Report an absence to Prudential for:

- Short Term Disability (STD)
- Family Medical Leave (FML)
- Long Term Disability (LTD)
- Lost-time, work-related injury—after first reporting it to your supervisor

How can I report an absence or disability?

To report an absence or disability you can either:

1. Call Prudential at 877-908-4PRU (877-908-4778) anytime. You can speak to one of our absence professionals or follow the prompts to record your absence or disability information.
2. Log in to www.prudential.com/mybenefits. Click on Claim Submission and follow the instructions. There, you can input your information and download any forms you may need.

What information will I be asked to provide?

Please have the following information ready:

- Company name
- Company control #50757
- Employee ID
- Reason for your absence
- First date absent
- Work schedule
- Date you expect to return to work
- If your absence is related to illness or injury, name, fax, and telephone number of the treating physician
- If caring for a qualified family member, their relation to you.

When should I contact Prudential again?

Notify us, by phone or online, if you:

- Have updated information
- Are unable to return to work on the planned date
- Are returning or have returned to work
- Want to report your delivery date
- Want to report time on an intermittent leave
- Need forms
