Supplier Diversity

For the benefit of the University, its suppliers, and the local community, the Procurement Services Office (PSO) is committed to an inclusive procurement environment. Placing a high value on a diverse supplier base is an important part of the PSO's overall strategic mission, with the goal of achieving a best-in-class supplier diversity program.

To execute that mission, the PSO works closely with RIT's Office for Diversity and Inclusion, peer institutions, suppliers, and industry organizations on the continuous improvement of the University's Supplier Diversity Program.

For more in-depth information about RIT's Supplier Diversity Program, please visit the PSO web page at:

The PSO will keep you informed as new initiatives are launched and the program evolves.

If you have any questions or concerns about supplier diversity contact Deb Kusse, Executive Director of Procurement, at dskpur@rit.edu or 475-3947.
