OSHER Lifelong Learning Institute at RIT where curious minds gather Because you have gifts of experience to share

Because you would have loved school if there had been no exams

Why do you belong at Osher?

Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at RIT is a membership-led organization that stimulates minds and forges friendships among people 50 and older who live in Greater Rochester.

Our days are filled with classes, discussions, talks, social events, and travel—but never exams. Offerings span a wide range of topics, including the arts, literature, sciences, history and government.

Osher. There are a million-and-one reasons why curious minds gather. Discover yours!

Come for the courses. Stay for the people

That’s what happens at Osher. People come for the intellectual stimulation and challenge, and discover along the way that there are friendships to be made and experiences to be shared.

We offer 40 - 50 or more courses each term, from one-session courses for those who like big ideas in small packages to courses that meet weekly over the entire 8 to 10-week session. Courses are suggested and led by members.

Osher members come in all shapes and sizes, and from all walks of life. You don’t need to be an RIT alum, or have an MBA or an MD after your name. You don’t even have to have prior college experience. You only need to love learning...and to be 50 or older.

Beyond courses: from lectures to expeditions to dances to art exhibitions...

Discover what else is included in your annual Osher membership:

Pfaudler Enrichment Series
This speakers program is held every Thursday at noon, and features Osher members as well as guest lecturers. Bring your lunch! Schedule: page 14

Summer Seminars & Intersessions
Discovery/Adventure learning experiences are capped by expeditions to complementary destinations during our Summer Seminars. Intersessions are between-session expeditions to local museums and cultural attractions.

Social Activities
Picnics, parties, holiday celebrations...there’s always something fun happening. Events and dates: page 5
“Sometimes you meet new people and you just talk on the surface for 10 or 15 minutes and then you don’t have anything to talk about anymore. At Osher it seems you always have something to talk about with people, because they have a variety of interests—sports, literature, history. They travel. They’re interested in other people...”

Travel, Tours, Field Trips
Member-organized and led, generally within a day’s travel time. We’ve enjoyed Hudson River Valley and Val Kill, and the Toronto Museum to see the Dead Sea Scrolls. (Additional fees cover actual travel expenses.)

Osher Gallery
Works of art by members are displayed on a rotating basis at The Athenaeum Building. Enjoy—or exhibit your own work.

And then there are the perks of a regular membership...

RIT Student Identification Card. A pass to RIT campus facilities, your ID card entitles you to:
• Student admission rates for campus events.
• Check-out privileges at the RIT Library.
• Student discounts at the Campus Bookstore. Save hundreds on computer hardware and software!
• Access to campus fitness facilities at a reduced rate.
• Good for student discounts around town, too.

RIT Liberal Arts Courses, after your first year
Listen in on about 100 RIT liberal arts courses. Hang out with a younger crowd, and still no exams! Pick up a catalog at our reception desk or download a PDF Course list from our web site at www.osh.rit.edu.

Audiology Services
State-of-the-art hearing evaluation and hearing aid service and purchase are available at significant savings through RIT’s National Technical Institute for the Deaf (NTID).

Paperback Library
Books are contributed and maintained by members; borrow on a no-time-limit basis. No late fees!

Visit our web site at www.osh.rit.edu for more detail on our programs, our people, membership, ways to get involved...

Divided Ground:
An American Revolution Tragedy ............ F7
The Divided Ground is the compelling story of Joseph Brandt, a Mohawk chief, and Rev. Samuel Kirkland, a missionary, over a 50-year period. The saga of land disposition evolved through corrupt, dangerous, and tumultuous processes. This led to the British and the Colonialists taking land from the Native Americans.
(Text: Divided Ground by Alan Taylor (optional), field trips to RMSC and Ganondagan, $7 to $10 fee per trip.) Audio/Visual, Discussion, Field Trip, Lecture

Facilitated by Michael O’Neal. Presenters include:
Charles Sparnecht, Sheryl de Jonge-Loavenbruck, Anne Fenstermacher, Randall Gilbert, Kathy Hayes,
Hugh Mitchell, Malcolm O’Malley, and Phil Weisberg

Monday: 10:45 am – 12:15 pm
10 Sessions: September 20 – November 29

Memoirs ............................................. F8 Veteran Memoir class participants realize the importance of writing their life stories. Benefits to themselves, and as a gift for their families, they are motivated to write weekly, continuing the course term after term. They urge and welcome Osher members to join them. Reading, Writing

Carol Samuel, a “mostly retired” obstetrical nurse, is enthusiastic about encouraging people to record their memoirs. She has led this class for eight years.

Monday: 10:45 am – 12:15 pm
10 Sessions: September 20 – November 29

Presidential Leadership:
The Early Years, 1789 – 1829 ............. F9
We will compare and contrast five presidents (Washington, Adams, Jefferson, Madison, and J.Q.
Adams) by evaluating their effectiveness — background, elections, character, and key decisions – and relating their leadership to contemporary presidents. Discussion and analysis will include two videos from PBS and The History Channel. Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Alan Shank, professor emeritus of political science at SUNY Geneseo, has led Osher classes in presidential crisis decisions and great decisions in U.S. foreign policy.

Monday: 10:45 am – 12:15 pm
10 Sessions: September 20 – November 29

Express Yourself in Writing ............... F10 Use your imagination to write short stories on subjects suggested by the course leader, and enjoy the opportunity to write stories you have mentally composed over the years. To assist in improving your skills, a gentle and positive critique of your writing will be included in the class. Outside writing is expected.
Discussion, Writing

Pat Edelman is an avid reader and writer, and enjoys couraging others to write. Her work as a librarian has given her an appreciation of books and of the talent required to write them.

Monday: 1:00 – 3:00 pm
10 Sessions: September 20 – November 29

Aristotle, Mozart, Dickinson: Friendship . . . F11
To those who would like to pursue the theme of friendship, let us engage together in exploring this idea. We will study in depth Aristotle’s Ethics (Books 8
- 9), Mozart’s Magic Flute, the Bible, and various poetic sources in addition to other texts. Class limit 18
Audio/Visual, Discussion, Reading

Mary Fisher is connected to St. John’s College, Annapolis, MD (MA, Alumni Board) and has a lasting love of inquiry. Voice training, ecology committee work, and volunteer coordination help inform her perspective.

Monday: 1:00 – 3:00 pm
5 Sessions: October 25 – November 29

Medical School in Two Hours a Week . . . . F12
The final term of medical school will cover the urinary system; the eyes; the ears, nose, and throat; diseases of the blood; nutrition (including vitamins, minerals and supplements); palliative and end of life care; aging and geriatrics; infectious diseases; and complementary and alternative medicine. (Text: We will continue to use the 5th edition of Thibodeau and Patton’s The Human Body in Health and Disease)
Audio/Visual, Lecture, Reading

Four retired physicians will continue to organize and teach this course: Victor Poleshuck, Ed Lebowitz, Josh Hollander, and Alex Marcus.

Monday: 1:00 – 3:00 pm
10 Sessions: September 20 – November 29
Advanced Italian ................. F13
More advanced grammar, a focus on reading and discussing stories, and Italian conversation will be the basis for this course. (Text: Easy Reading by Rebecca Saggese, $11.95 at Borders or Barnes & Noble)
Discussion, Lecture, Reading, Writing

Gloria Cialone graduated from the University of Naples, Italy, and likes to share her knowledge of the Italian language with Osher members.

Tuesday: 9:00 – 10:30 am
10 Sessions: September 21 – November 30

---

Who and Why Are We? Our Blueprint ........ F14
This course is a brief study of genetics and the human genome. Although genes have been around for millions of years, there is renewed interest in them today, especially in medicine, law, agriculture, and in alternative energy. We will look at where genes are, what they are made of, and what they do for/to us.
Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Elise de Papp is a retired pathologist interested in learning more about genetics than what she had in med school 50 years ago.

Tuesday: 9:00 – 10:30 am
5 Sessions: October 26 – November 30

The Singularity Is Near: Part 2 .............. F15
Ray Kurzweil imagined a future where humans transcend biology and eventually move to a higher plane of existence in his book The Singularity Is Near. Others disagree. This course will explore these opposing views of the future in a peer group seminar, and is a continuation of the course presented in the spring. Attendance at the first course is not necessary.
(Text: The Singularity Is Near by Ray Kurzweil, available used for approximately $10)

Peer Group Seminar

Brian Ives, now retired, has taught computer science at the college level and has an extensive background in managing technical businesses.

Tuesday: 9:00 – 10:30 am
5 Sessions: September 21 – October 19

Ancient Rome: From Republic to Empire ....... F16
The ancient Roman world lasted more than 1,000 years, spanned three continents, from Scotland to Syria, contained millions of people and included a range of local customs, laws, languages and religions. This course will explore Roman life and culture from sports to family life and the weapons used to conquer the empire.
Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Marie Levin had a 30-year career in marketing management and was a vice president and chief operating officer for major clinical laboratories. She is an avid history buff.

Tuesday: 9:00 – 10:30 am
10 Sessions: September 21 – November 30

The Cognitive-Behavioral Theory of Personality ................. F17 Practical Philosophy meets Modern Psychology! This course focuses on the historical figures whose lives and ideas still affect the way we act and think, as well as the lives and work of the psychologists responsible for advancing the concept that cognition plays an important role in behavior change.
Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Barry and Susan McVay served as psychologists and counselors for local school districts for 30 years.

Tuesday: 9:00 – 10:30 am
10 Sessions: September 21 – November 30

---

Beginner Italian ....................... F18
This course is an introduction to the Italian language with basic grammar rules, easy reading, grammar games, and crossword puzzles.
Discussion, Lecture, Reading, Writing

Gloria Cialone graduated from the University of Naples, Italy, and likes to share her knowledge of the Italian language with Osher members.

Tuesday: 10:45 am – 12:15 pm
10 Sessions: September 21 – November 30

---

U.S. Foreign Policy: 1945 – 2010 ........ F19
This course traces our foreign policy from the end of World War II through the administrations of Harry Truman to Barack Obama. Since we have all lived through this period, the discussion should be lively.
Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Bob Getz is a retired political science professor, SUNY Brockport. He has led courses at Osher for ten years.

Tuesday: 10:45 am – 12:15 pm
10 Sessions: September 21 – November 30
Guns, Germs, and Steel .......................... F20

We will read and discuss Jared Diamond’s Pulitzer Prize-winning book Guns, Germs, and Steel. It covers the growth of human civilizations and poses (and answers) questions like: Why did the Spaniards conquer the Aztecs and Incas and not the other way around? Why did European diseases wipe out the Native Americans and not vice versa? (Text: Guns, Germs, and Steel, by Jared Diamond, available from Amazon for $15 new) Audio/Visual, Discussion, Peer Group Seminar, Reading

Beyond learning... is leading Courses at Osher are led by members. Some have extensive experience in the topic they like to lead and others are just curious enough about something that they go out and research it so they can lead a course. Contact us—we’ll be happy to tell you more about leading at Osher.

“I love leading courses here. It’s like I died and went to heaven. When you’re teaching here at Osher, you’re teaching people who are really hungry to learn.”

Visit our web site! www.oshers.rit.edu

Membership

Because you’ve already given up hula hoops, bikinis, and trans fats, you shouldn’t have to give up everything fun...

There are a million-and-one reasons why you belong where curious minds gather. Discover your place at Osher.

“I am enjoying learning about more varied subjects since I joined Osher. New ideas, new friends, new experiences ... ”

Gina Mikolon

Which membership suits your needs?
We have varying levels of membership to fit members’ individual circumstances. You can begin your membership at the start of any of our three terms: Fall (September), Winter (January) and Spring/Summer (April).

Regular Membership
A Regular Membership entitles you to participate in all activities, and offers the opportunity to join the RIT community. Enjoy unlimited courses at Osher, participation in social activities, the Pfaudler Enrichment Series, travel and tour programs, Summer Seminar and Intersession programs, and an RIT Student ID card. Beginning in your second year, you are entitled to “listen in” on selected RIT liberal arts courses. A number of partial scholarships are available. Scholarships are made possible through a grant from the Bernard Osher Foundation. Please contact the Program Director for more information.

The annual fee is $265 per person.

Supporting Membership
Unable to participate in courses but interested in our other activities? Supporting Membership is for you. Participate in all social events, Pfaudler Enrichment Series, Summer Seminar and Intersession programs and travel and tour programs. You may also invite a guest to one of these activities.

The fee is $130.

Trial Membership
Available to first-time members only, Trial Membership offers another way to “try out Osher.” Enjoy all the privileges of Regular Membership for one term (Fall, Winter, or Spring/Summer) excluding the RIT Student ID card and audiology services.

The fee is $150 per person.

Are you a Snowbird? “Gift” your winter term to a friend.

OSHER Lifelong Learning Institute at RIT reserves the right to cancel courses because of low registration, last-minute unavailability of course leaders, or other unavoidable circumstances. Members will be notified immediately of such cancellations so they may select an alternative. Written confirmation will not be sent. You may consider yourself registered in your selected course(s) unless you are notified otherwise. We invite our members to register for as many classes as they wish, but for planning purposes, we ask you to register only for the classes you intend to make a consistent good-faith effort to attend.

Note: Some courses require the purchase of books or materials. Registration forms processed starting August 30, 2010.

A number of partial scholarships are available. Please contact the Program Director for more information.

We’d like to know more about you! Please complete the Member Profile on the other side.
We ask each member to provide us with information about him/herself. This information is kept strictly private and is used to help us meet your membership expectations. By knowing a little about you we are able to choose courses to your liking, fill committees with knowledgeable members, plan social events and form special-interest groups by assisting members who wish to search out others with similar interests. Please take a few minutes to provide us with some information about yourself.
