Beyond Snapshots, Second Look ................ Su1
[NEW CONTENT] This summer we’ll view 30-minute videos Great Course Fundamentals of Photography. We’ll use their information to complete photo shoot homework assignments which we’ll share in class. We’ll shoot on our own for as much time as we’re inspired. In class we’ll view the video and discuss, followed by sharing and editing our images. We’ll enhance and share our knowledge of post processing software to make good images even better. Limit: 12 Audio/Visual, Discussion, Field Study/Trip, Workshop
Required Materials: Any camera, advanced or basic, and a laptop with some type of editing software. Michelle will be using Lightroom but bring whatever you use regularly. If you have questions about equipment, please email Michelle at mt1@rochester.rr.com.

Michelle Turner is an enthusiastic amateur photographer who has won many awards in local competitions and recognition in international competitions. Her work has been displayed at Osher, Image City Photography Gallery, High Falls, and is for sale in various locations.

Monday: 9:30 – 11:00 am
Four Sessions: July 7 – 28

Current Events ......................... Su2
This course is intended to encourage others to express their opinions on the issues of the day. It is also intended to expose the participants to other ideas. Discussion

Con Sullivan has led other courses, as well as this course, at Osher for several years.

Monday: 9:30 – 11:00 am
Eight Sessions: July 7 – August 25

DNA ........................................ Su3
The goal of this course is to give you a basic understanding of the structure and chemical composition of DNA. DNA is the only molecule that can produce an exact copy of itself (replication) and this process will be explained. The use of DNA in CSI work and parental determination will be covered. Limit: 50 Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Stan Ertel is a retired science teacher who enjoys learning and trying new experiences. His other interests are biking, skiing, and baking bread.

Monday: 9:30 – 11:00 am
Four Sessions: July 7 – 28

Plato’s Republic ............................... Su4
[NEW COURSE] The theme is justice: What is it, and can it be shown to be always beneficial to its possessor? Can we show that moral distinctions are based on a rational principle? We will read and discuss Plato’s answer: the Republic. Discussion, Reading Required Text: Any edition of the Benjamin Jowett translation of the Republic.

Tom Low is neither a professional philosopher nor an academic, but he has been a serious reader since his teens. He has presented classes at Osher on figures as diverse as Montaigne, Thoreau, William James, Marcus Aurelius, and the great economists.

Monday: 9:30 – 11:00 am
Eight Sessions: July 7 – August 25

Memoirs ........................................ Su5
What good are all your family stories if they are locked up in your head? Who will be able to remember all you told? The class becomes a vehicle for creating your personal “Forever Gift”, your life story for generations to appreciate. Veteran memoir writers will inspire you. Discussion, Reading
Optional Text: The Heart and Craft of Lifestory Writing: How to Transform Memories into Meaningful Stories, by Lippincott, S. M.

Carol Samuel, an enthusiastic veteran Memoirs class leader and retired obstetrical nurse, feels that time is especially ripe and need essential for folks to record their life story for their own benefit and for generations to come.

Monday: 11:15 am – 12:45 pm
Seven Sessions: July 14 – August 25

Understanding the Human Brain ................ Su6
[NEW CONTENT] We will view videos and listen to lectures on neuroscience and talk about them. The topics covered will include memory, emotions, and consciousness. Eric Kandel, Antonio Damasio, and Michael Gazzaniga will be among the neuroscientists featured. Audio/Visual, Lecture

Alex Marcus is a retired physician who practiced neurology and psychiatry.

Monday: 11:15 am – 12:45 pm
Eight Sessions: July 7 – August 25
Conversational French ........................................ Su7
An emphasis on the spoken language with practice in reading and writing for those with some background in French. Class enthusiasm and participation are the primary prerequisites. Come and have some summer fun learning to express yourself in another language. Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture, Peer Group Seminar, Reading, Writing

Roz Rubin is a lifelong language learner who truly enjoys interacting with Osher members in French.

Wednesday: 9:30 – 11:00 am
Eight Sessions: July 9 – August 27

Good Golly! It’s Bolly!
Summer Blockbusters .................................Su8

NEW CONTENT It’s time to enjoy summertime Bollywood Blockbusters! Experience action/adventure/romance as only those filmmakers in India can produce. Substantial background material is presented to enhance the appreciation of the movies and to help understand the culture of India. Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Note: Each week a “Scavenger Hunt” (a way to follow the important parts of the storyline) is emailed to the class. Those wanting to participate should print it out and bring it to class. A hardcopy can be provided if necessary for those without access to a computer or printer for $0.25/week. We will go out to lunch after each class to a different Indian restaurant each week. The average cost is $15.

What began as pure fascination with an eye-catching backdrop to an Indian meal has become Nita Genova’s journey in trying to understand a rich, diverse culture through India’s regional film industries.

Wednesday: 9:30 – 11:30 am
Eight Sessions: July 9 – August 27

Conversational Spanish .......................... Su9
An emphasis on the spoken language with practice in reading and writing for those with some background in Spanish. Class enthusiasm and participation are the primary prerequisites. Come and have some summer fun learning to express yourself in another language. Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture, Peer Group Seminar, Reading, Writing

Roz Rubin is a lifelong language learner who truly enjoys interacting with Osher members in Spanish.

Wednesday: 11:15 am – 12:45 pm
Eight Sessions: July 9 – August 27

Ibsen and Čapek ............................. Su10

NEW COURSE The class will read and perform two great plays dealing with modern issues: Ibsen’s An Enemy of the People and Čapek’s Rossum’s Universal Robots (R.U.R).

Peer Group, Other: Classroom Performance

Required Texts: The Arthur Miller adaptation of An Enemy of the People and the 1921 translation of Rossum’s Universal Robots (R.U.R)

Harvey Granite has taught Shakespeare and other classic authors at Osher, formerly The RIT Athenaeum, since the program began. He taught a Reader’s Theatre class of R.U.R. at the end of the 20th Century.

Wednesday: 11:15 am – 12:45 pm
Eight Sessions: July 9 – August 27

Poetic Visions .......................... Su11
Using a seminar format, we will explore aspects of famous poems and share poems we have written and enjoyed. Come prepared to have some fun with poetry. Limit: 18

Discussion, Lecture, Workshop, Writing

Twice nominated for the Pushcart Prize, Gary Lehmann’s poetry has been published all over the world. His five poetry books include Public Lives and Private Secrets and his most recent publication Snapshots [2012].

Wednesday: 1:30 – 3:15 pm
Eight Sessions: July 9 – August 27

Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at RIT reserves the right to cancel courses because of low registration, last-minute unavailability of course leaders, or other unavoidable circumstances. Members will be notified immediately of such cancellations so they may select an alternative. Written confirmation will not be sent. You may consider yourself registered in your selected course(s) unless you are notified otherwise. We invite our members to register for as many classes as they wish, but for planning purposes, we ask you to register only for the classes you intend to make a consistent good-faith effort to attend.

Note: Some courses require the purchase of books or materials. Registration forms are processed starting June 25, 2014.

A number of partial scholarships are available. Please contact the Program Administrator for an application.

We’d like to know more about you! Please complete the Member Profile on the other side.
We ask each member to provide us with information about him/herself. This information is kept strictly private and is used to help us meet your membership expectations. By knowing a little about you we are able to choose courses to your liking, fill committees with knowledgeable members, plan social events, and form special-interest groups by assisting members who wish to search out others with similar interests. Please take a few minutes to provide us with some information about yourself.
