Come for the courses. Stay for the people
That’s what happens at Osher. People come for the intellectual stimulation and challenge, and discover along the way that there are friendships to be made and experiences to be shared.

We offer 40 - 50 or more courses each term, from one-session courses for those who like big ideas in small packages to courses that meet weekly over the entire 8 to 10-week session. Courses are suggested and led by members.

Osher members come in all shapes and sizes, and from all walks of life. You don’t need to be an RIT alum, or have an MBA or an MD after your name. You don’t even have to have prior college experience. You only need to love learning...and to be 50 or older.

Because your TV only talks at you, not with you

Because you have gifts of experience to share

Because you would have loved school if there had been no exams

Why do you belong at OSHER?

Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at RIT is a membership-led organization that stimulates minds and forges friendships among people 50 and older who live in Greater Rochester.

Our days are filled with classes, discussions, talks, social events, and travel – but never exams. Offerings span a wide range of topics, including the arts, literature, sciences, history, and government.

OSHER. There are a million-and-one reasons why curious minds gather. Discover yours!

Beyond courses: from lectures to expeditions to dances to art exhibitions...

Discover what else is included in your annual Osher membership:

Pfaudler Enrichment Series
This speakers program is held every Thursday at noon, and features Osher members as well as guest lecturers. Bring your lunch! Schedule: page 14

Summer Seminars & Intersessions
Discovery/Adventure learning experiences are capped by expeditions to complementary destinations during our Summer Seminars. Intersessions are between-session expeditions to local museums and cultural attractions.

Social Activities
Picnics, parties, holiday celebrations...there’s always something fun happening. Events and dates: page 5

“Sometimes you meet new people and you just talk on the surface for 10 or 15 minutes and then you don’t have anything to talk about anymore. At Osher it seems you always have something to talk about with people, because they have a variety of interests—sports, literature, history. They travel. They’re interested in other people...”

Travel, Tours, Field Trips
Member-organized and led, generally within a day’s travel time. We’ve enjoyed Hudson River Valley and Val Kill, and the Toronto Museum to see the Dead Sea Scrolls. (Additional fees cover actual travel expenses.)

Osher Gallery
Works of art by members are displayed on a rotating basis at The Athenaeum Building. Enjoy – or exhibit your own work.

And then there are the perks of a regular membership...
RIT Student Identification Card. A pass to RIT campus facilities, your ID card entitles you to:
• Student admission rates for campus events.
• Check-out privileges at the RIT Library.
• Student discounts at the Campus Bookstore. Save hundreds on computer hardware and software!
• Access to campus fitness facilities at a reduced rate.
• Good for student discounts around town, too.

RIT Liberal Arts Courses, after your first year
Listen in on about 100 RIT liberal arts courses. Hang out with a younger crowd, and still no exams! Pick up a catalog at our reception desk or download a PDF Course list from our web site at www.oshers.rit.edu.

Audiology Services
State-of-the-art hearing evaluation and hearing aid service and purchase are available at significant savings through RIT’s National Technical Institute for the Deaf (NTID).

Osher Library
Books are contributed and maintained by members; borrow books on an extended-time basis. No late fees!

Visit our web site at www.oshers.rit.edu for more detail on our programs, our people, membership, ways to get involved...

REFERENCE KEY

- 1st Session, 5 weeks (January 10 – February 11)
- 2nd Session, 4 weeks (February 14 – March 11)
- Full session, 9 weeks (January 10 – March 11)

Early registration recommended. Classes fill up quickly.
We will read and discuss Jared Diamond’s Pulitzer Prize-winning book Guns, Germs, and Steel. It covers the growth of human civilizations and poses (and answers) questions like: Why did the Spaniards conquer the Aztecs and Incas, and not the other way around? Why did the Europeans’ diseases wipe out the indigenous Americans and not vice versa? (This is a repeat of the Fall course.)

Text: Guns, Germs, and Steel by Jared Diamond, available from Amazon for $15 new

Discussion, Peer Group Seminar, Reading

James Roddy has a background in science and engineering and found this book intriguing.

Dick Jones has a background in science, information technology and business, but has a passion for history.

Monday: 10:45 am – 12:15 pm

9 Sessions: January 10 – March 7

Brothers and Other Mothers: The Tenor Saxophone in Jazz

This course is part of an ongoing survey of the history of the tenor saxophone in jazz. We will trace the influence of Lester Young on a new generation of tenor players, such as Stan Getz, who came of age in the late 40s and early 50s. Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Peter Luce has taught jazz history courses at both Osher and Chautauqua. He also enjoys photography, hiking, biking and travel.

Monday: 9:00 – 10:30 am

9 Sessions: January 10 – March 7

American Character / American Characters...

An enduring question about the United States is “What is an American?” This course will probe this question, looking at what makes up the character of the nation and who some of the characters have been that have shaped it. Individuals studied will include Frederick Douglass, Black Elk, Thomas Jefferson, Emma Goldman, Betty Friedan, and more. Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Chuck Sparnecht has taught United States history for over 30 years and still doesn’t know the answer to “What is an American?” Join him in looking for the answer.

Monday: 9:00 – 10:30 am

9 Sessions: January 10 – March 7

Current Events

This course is intended to allow members to express their opinions and reactions to current events in a non-threatening atmosphere. Discussion

Con Sullivan has an intense interest in the insights of his peers to various current events. That interest is richly rewarded.

Monday: 9:00 – 10:30 am

9 Sessions: January 10 – March 7

Memoirs

New and experienced class participants inspire each other to preserve their life stories for future generations. Concerned that no one will care? Think about the stories you’ve heard and can’t quite remember. Someone will be glad for your effort, maybe even you! All are welcome. (Optional text: The Heart and Craft of Lifestory Writing: How to Transform Memories Into Meaningful Stories, by Lippincott, S.M.) Reading, Writing

Carol Samuel, an eight-year course leader of the Memoir class, is a “mostly retired” obstetrical nurse. She remains enthusiastic about encouraging people to write their life stories.

Monday: 10:45 am – 12:15 pm

9 Sessions: January 10 – March 7

Taxes and Tax Policy

We will look into the various taxes including their history and rationale. Current issues in taxation and how taxes are used will also be discussed. (Text: certain websites will be recommended but no cost is involved.) Audio/Visual, Discussion

Phil Weisberg is a volunteer tax preparer with the CASH program in Monroe County.

Monday: 10:45 am – 12:15 pm

9 Sessions: January 10 – March 7
Express Yourself in Writing ................. W7
Use your imagination to write short stories on subjects suggested by the course leader, and enjoy the opportunity to write stories you have mentally composed over the years. To assist in improving your skills, a gentle and positive critique of your writing will be included in the class. Outside writing is expected.
Discussion, Writing

Pat Edelman is an avid reader and writer, and enjoys encouraging others to write. Her work as a librarian has given her an appreciation of books and of the talent required to write them.

Monday: 1:00 – 3:00 pm
9 Sessions: January 10 – March 7

Good Golly! It’s Bolly! (Indian Cinema Appreciation) ............. W8
Imagine watching Casablanca and suddenly everyone breaks into a beautifully-staged song and dance production... somehow it works! We will watch three or four classics which will lead to a discussion of Motherland values and how Bollywood is impacting global filmmaking.
Audio/Visual, Discussion

Nita Genova first started watching Bollywood movies three years ago. She finds them endlessly fascinating and hopes you will too.

Monday: 1:00 – 3:00 pm
9 Sessions: January 10 – March 7

In Search of the Earliest Humans in the Western Hemisphere ............ W9
We will explore various ways that humans traveled into the Western hemisphere, the approximate times that they arrived, where they might have come from, and where we have found evidence of these migrations. Our exploration will involve geology, archaeology, anthropology, dating methods, evolution, and the role of glaciers in providing or hindering pathways.
(Optional text: The First Americans by James Adovasio, for $15.95, available at the Park Point Barnes & Noble.)
Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Kathy Hayes has presented this course before, but more recent discoveries make revisiting the subject worthwhile. She looks forward to leading a new expedition into the human history of the Western hemisphere.

Monday: 1:00 – 3:00 pm
9 Sessions: January 10 – March 7

The Dynasties of Ancient China:
5000 years of Chinese History ................. W10
This course explores the history and culture of China from the mythical Yao to chairman Mao. We will follow the growth of China from a small kingdom to a major empire extending from the Siberian frontier to the jungles of Southeast Asia, from the Pacific coast to the Central Asian deserts.
Audio/Visual, Lecture

Marie Levin had a 30-year career in marketing management and was a vice president and chief operating officer for major clinical laboratories. She is an avid history buff.

Tuesday: 9:00 – 10:30 am
9 Sessions: January 11 – March 8

Lyricists of the American Songbook .......... W11
We will study the lives and music of four great lyricists of the American Songbook: Cole Porter, Johnny Mercer, Dorothy Fields, and Oscar Hammerstein. This will be accomplished by watching videos of each lyricist and listening to and discussing the lyrics of their songs.
Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Lewis Neisner is a retired college professor. He has always had a love of music and has previously led Osher courses on jazz, Broadway musicals, and the music of the American Songbook.

Tuesday: 9:00 – 10:30 am
9 Sessions: January 11 – March 8

Our Neighbors, the Deaf Community ........ W12
Rochester has more deaf citizens than any other city in the USA. In light of that, the study of deaf culture (which includes language, music, theatre, and more) is especially important for us. Also, there are medical issues that are unique to the deaf community – the foremost being implants. Special guests and audio-visual will be included.
Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Frances Ratcliffe has lived her life in two worlds – deaf and hearing. Being married for over 50 years to a deaf husband has been a constant challenge.

Tuesday: 9:00 – 10:30 am
5 Sessions: January 11 – February 8
Irish History .............................................................. W16
This is a truncated look at the multi-era history of “The Emerald Isle.” Lecture

Con Sullivan is interested in the history of the land of his parents and what events precipitated their departure.

Tuesday: 10:45 am – 12:15 pm
9 Sessions: January 11 – March 8

American Foreign Policy: the 1990s to the Present .................. W17
This course traces our foreign policy from the Clinton administration through the first two-plus years of the Obama administration. Discussion, Lecture

Bob Getz is a retired political science professor, SUNY Brockport. He has led courses at Osher for ten years.

Tuesday: 1:00 – 2:30 pm
5 Sessions: January 11 – February 8

Poetic Visions ......................................................... W18
Using a seminar format, we will explore aspects of famous poems and share poems we have written and enjoyed. Come prepared to have some fun with poetry.

Class Limit 18.
Discussion, Peer Group Seminar, Workshop, Writing

Twice nominated for the Pushcart Prize, Gary Lehmann’s essays, poetry, and short stories are widely published. They include The Span I Will Cross and Public Lives and Private Secrets.

Tuesday: 1:00 – 2:30 pm
9 Sessions: January 11 – March 8

The New Yorker Discussion Group ............... W19
In this course we will discuss the weekly New Yorker magazine. These discussions will center on articles selected by the class members. Each member will read as much of the magazine as they wish ahead of time and come prepared with their thoughts and recommendations for which articles they wish to discuss. The first session will review the January 3, 2011 issue.

(Text: subscription to New Yorker, either the paper or electronic version.) Discussion, Reading

Joan Dupont is a recently retired civil engineer who has worked in both the government and private sectors. Steve Levinson focuses his time on consulting with not-for-profits, being a partner in a photographic gallery, and board volunteer work.

Tuesday: 1:00 – 2:30 pm
9 Sessions: January 11 – March 8
Elegant Science Writing  W20
Many people who write about science, including scientists, have used vivid and evocative language in their works. Short selections from such writings will be read in class and discussed both for what they tell us about the world around us and for their literary quality. Discussion

Sidney Shapiro is professor emeritus of electrical engineering from the U of R. He has led courses about the practice of science and about poetry.

Tuesday:  1:00 – 2:30 pm
9 Sessions:  January 11 – March 8

The Poetry of Winter  W21
Winter is a powerful season, lending itself to many experiences, topics, and memories. It also begs us to write with our senses. Each week we will share work we have recently written and discuss the works of other poets. Discussion, Workshop, Writing

Ron Bailey has worked with poetry groups in public and private settings from too long ago to admit. He has been published quite widely. He loves the fun of the poetic music.

Wednesday:  9:00 – 10:30 am
4 Sessions:  February 16 – March 9

Nadine Gordimer: History from the Inside  W22

Mary Barrett is a retired teacher who remains fascinated by how social and historical forces affect people’s personal lives.

Wednesday:  9:00 – 10:30 am
9 Sessions:  January 12 – March 9

Beginning Italian  W23
This is an introduction to the Italian language, with basic grammar rules, composition of simple sentences, and easy readings. Discussion, Reading, Writing

Gloria Cialone graduated from the University of Naples, Italy, and likes to share her knowledge of the Italian language with Osher members.

Wednesday:  9:00 – 10:30 am
9 Sessions:  January 12 – March 9

Perspectives on America’s Economic Transformations  W24
What is happening to the USA economy? Where are we headed? Topics include the increased economic dominance of top banking and investment firms, the stagnant economic position of the middle and working classes, public and political reactions, and proposals and warnings about future economic paths. Perspectives include free market, Keynesian, and mixed new ideas. (Text: either [a] Freefall by Joseph E. Stiglitz, [b] Aftershock by Robert Reich, [c] Third World America by A. Huffington, or [d] Crisis Economics by Nouriel Roubini. Books are subject to change, contact bethvanfossen@yahoo.com after 1/3 to confirm.) Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture, Reading

Beth Vanfossen, retired university professor of sociology, continues to be fascinated with what is happening in the USA, and offers this updated sequel to two prior courses on the financial crisis of 2008.

Wednesday:  9:00 – 10:30 am
9 Sessions:  January 12 – March 9

Advanced Italian  W25
This course expects some previous experience with Italian as we concentrate on conversation and the reading of short stories and poems. (Text: Easy Italian Reader by Riccardo Saggese) Discussion, Reading, Writing

Gloria Cialone graduated from the University of Naples, Italy, and likes to share her knowledge of the Italian language with Osher members.

Wednesday:  10:45 am – 12:15 pm
9 Sessions:  January 12 – March 9
Contemporary Events .................... W26
If the news of the day interests you, or leaves you with questions or concerns, join with others to explore issues affecting our lives. While the leader will act as facilitator, members will suggest the day’s topics and should bring to class supporting information from any form of media. Discussion

After June Clase dropped out of college, she explored beachcombing before returning to finish college. As a retired college professor, she tries to be an informed citizen.

Wednesday: 10:45 am – 12:15 pm
9 Sessions: January 12 – March 9

The Athenaeum Book Club ..................... W29
This course meets monthly through all three terms and follows the Great Books Discussion format. The course members chose the books at the first meeting in September. This course will meet January 19, 2011 and March 2, 2011. (Text: 1/19: Tinkers by Paul Harding and Death of Ivan Ilyich by Leo Tolstoy. 3/2: Factory Girls by Leslie Chang.) Discussion, Peer Group Seminar, Reading

Georgia DeGregorio, though a business major in college, has always sought out opportunities to explore new ideas from great books. Lois Tucker is a retired counselor, avid reader, and movie goer.

Wednesday: 1:00 – 2:30 pm
2 Sessions: January 19, March 2

Shakespeare in Love, Part II: Antony and Cleopatra .......................... W27
We will read, view, and discuss the tragic love story of Mark Antony, a triumvir of Rome, and Cleopatra, Queen of Egypt, using the text, film on video, audio, and live performance. Attendance of Part I not required. (Text: a copy of Shakespeare’s play, Antony and Cleopatra, in any good edition with notes.) Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture, Reading

Wednesday Afternoon One-Session Courses

One-session courses are fast becoming a popular way to spend Wednesday afternoons at Osher. These one-time courses cover a wide variety of subjects. Listed below are the one-session courses currently scheduled for the winter term. Courses are added all the time, so be sure to check the wall in the lounge for the most up-to-date listing.

January 12: The Summer of 1777 in Upstate New York
The summer of 1777 was a turning point in the American Revolution. Without the heroic sacrifices of the colonists’ “rabble” army, we might still be British. We will retrace the dramatic events that took place near us.

Presented by Bill Hosley

January 19: Fun with Fibonacci
Who is Fibonacci? How come flowers grow like they do? How come a little snail knows so much? Can I make your brain do a little trick?

Presented by Steve Lambert

February 9: Happy Valentine’s Day
Happy Valentine’s Day! Let’s talk about Love - in poetry and art. We’ll look at works by artists such as Rembrandt and Rodin and poets such as Pound and Parker.

Presented by Cass Doyle

February 16: Day of the Dead in Oaxaca, Mexico
The Day of the Dead (Dia de los Muertos) is a non-religious holiday observed most intensely in Oaxaca, Mexico. Spirits of the departed are believed to return once a year to make contact with the living, and the preparations for this return are extensive and quite wonderful. We will also explore the syncretism with Catholicism and comparable rituals in other societies.

Presented by Victor Poleshuck
You Be the Critic...
a film discussion group

Carrying on the tradition of longtime group leader Joan Hart, the class will view and then discuss one or two current movies each week. Members will see the movies independently and personally rate them. Everyone is encouraged to participate and, with a variety of opinions, lively discussion is guaranteed!

Class limit 30. Audio/Visual, Discussion

Burt Freedman is a retired pharmacist. His interests include theater, reading, and spending time with his grandchildren. Bea Slizewski is a retired public relations professional with a great love for reading and movies.

Thursday: 9:30 – 11:30 am
9 Sessions: January 13 – March 10

---

Epidemics — Then and Now

Epidemics are public health emergencies. Drawing on historic and personal case studies this course will present the drama of epidemics, their investigation, and their impact on society.

Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

A medical epidemiologist, Bill Barker worked five years for the U.S. Centers for Disease Control in the Epidemic Intelligence Service (EIS) and has taught preventive medicine at the University of Rochester for over 30 years.

Thursday: 9:30 – 11:30 am
5 Sessions: January 13 – February 10

Participate in Life

This course is for people who are on their inner journey. There are many facets to participating in life. We will touch on a few through listening, discussion, and reading. Understandings are meant to make rich experiences possible in everyday life. The class is upbeat from the presence of those attending. DVDs, tapes, excerpts from books, and handouts will be utilized as is appropriate.

(Required: notebook, journal, and deep interest.)

Class Limit 30. Discussion, Lecture

Stillman Clark has accrued understandings that deserve to be shared. He delights in being with folks who are searching for more fulfillment on their journey.

Thursday: 9:30 – 11:30 am
9 Sessions: January 13 – March 10

---

The Portrait of a Lady by Henry James

Retaining the accessibility of the 1880 version of Portrait, the revised 1908 version incorporates the profundity that characterizes late James. The confrontation of American innocence with European decadence is the theme, and analysis will focus on the stylistic mastery that makes James one of the greatest novelists of the 20th century.

(Required: notebook, journal, and deep interest.)

Class Limit 30. Discussion, Reading

Note: This class will be repeated in the afternoon. Register for either morning or afternoon class.

Francia Roe has a master’s degree in English from the University of Rochester and taught Advanced Placement English language and composition and Advanced Placement English literature and composition for 28 years.

Thursday: 9:30 – 11:30 am
9 Sessions: January 13 – March 10
Elvis Presley: An American Musical Icon . . . . . W34
In 1956 Elvis jumped into the American musical scene. Thereafter, nothing would be the same in popular culture and the music business. We will look at what occurred before and after in his varied career, at his creation of a musical genre, and his gift for interpretation of many musical styles.
Audio/Visual

Ed Eaton is a former auditor. His interest in music began at age seven. Both his parents were music lovers. Being an avid record collector, Elvis Presley is his main interest.
Thursday: 1:30 – 3:30 pm
9 Sessions: January 13 – March 10

The History of Judaism . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . W35
This course chronicles the history of the Jewish people from the 1930s to life in modern Israel. Excerpts from The Diary of Anne Frank, Defiance, and Exodus will be presented and discussed. Rabbi Chaim Hisiger, principal of the Hillel School, will be a special guest. This course is a continuation of the fall course.
Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Is “Greed” Good? . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . W36
This course will review PBS programs on the effect of recent Wall Street crisis on the general economy. We will have an economist as a guest to compare the Depression of the 1930s to this last recession.
Audio/Visual, Discussion, Lecture

Herb Levin has degrees in education and social sciences and has led many courses at Osher in the past.
Thursday: 1:30 – 3:30 pm
4 Sessions: February 17 – March 10

Current Events in Science and Technology . . . . . W37
Similar to the popular Contemporary Events courses, and following the same format (class discussion of topics suggested by course participants), this course will focus on events and trends in science and technology. (It is recommended that participants read at least one publication such as Scientific American or the NY Times science section. Selected article reprints will be available by e-mail or in class.)
Discussion

Julian Thomas started working with computers as an undergraduate and hasn’t stopped since then, even after retiring from IBM. Alex Marcus is a retired physician who practiced neurology and psychiatry.
Thursday: 1:30 – 3:30 pm

Beyond learning...is leading
Courses at Osher are led by members. Some have extensive experience in the topic they like to lead and others are just curious enough about something that they go out and research it so they can lead a course. Contact us – we'll be happy to tell you more about leading at Osher.

“I love leading courses here. It’s like I died and went to heaven. When you’re teaching here at Osher, you’re teaching people who are really hungry to learn.”

Which membership suits your needs?
We have varying levels of membership to fit members’ individual circumstances. You can begin your membership at the start of any of our three terms: Fall (September), Winter (January) and Spring/Summer (April).

Regular Membership
A Regular Membership entitles you to participate in all activities, and offers the opportunity to join the RIT community. Enjoy unlimited courses at Osher, participation in social activities, the Pfaudler Enrichment Series, travel and tour programs, Summer Seminar and Intersession programs, and an RIT Student ID card. Beginning in your second year, you are entitled to “listen in” on selected RIT liberal arts courses. A number of partial scholarships are available. Scholarships are made possible through a grant from the Bernard Osher Foundation. Please contact the Program Director for more information.

The annual fee is $265 per person.

Supporting Membership
Unable to participate in courses but interested in our other activities? Supporting Membership is for you. Participate in all social events, Pfaudler Enrichment Series, Summer Seminar and Intersession programs and travel and tour programs. You may also invite a guest to one of these activities.

The fee is $130.

Trial Membership
Available to first-time members only, Trial Membership offers another way to “try out Osher.” Enjoy all the privileges of Regular Membership for one term (Fall, Winter, or Spring/Summer) excluding the RIT Student ID card and audiology services. The fee is $150 per person. You may convert your Trial Membership into Regular Membership by paying an additional $115 at the end of your trial term, thereby adding the subsequent two terms.

Are you a Snowbird? “Gift” your winter term to a friend.

To apply. There are only two criteria for membership in Osher: you must be 50 or older, and have an interest in lifelong learning. You’ll find our membership application and membership profile on the next two pages. Fill them out and return them to us by mail or by fax. Questions? Call us at 585-292-8989 or email us at osher.info@rit.edu.
