

RIT | Crowdfunding at RIT

Donations made via cash or check can be counted towards a group or project and their fundraising total as long as the funds are received prior to the end of the online Crowdfunding campaign and it is clear that these funds are intended to go towards that specified group or project.

If you would like to support a Crowdfunding campaign by submitting cash or check, please print and complete this form.

Once the donation is received and processed by RIT's Gift Office, your gift will be recognized on the online campaign page.
