

RIT | Crowdfunding at RIT

Gifts made via cash or check may be counted towards a group or project and their fundraising total as long as the funds are received before the end of the online crowdfunding campaign and it is clear that these funds are intended to go towards that specified group or project.

If you would like to support a crowdfunding campaign by check (we recommend you not mail cash), please print and complete this form.

Once your gift is received and processed by RIT's Gift Office, your gift will be recognized on the online campaign page.
