UPCOMING DEADLINE:

Honors Options

Submit Spring Honors Option Proposals

Spring 2026 Honors Option Proposals Are Due Soon!

Are you planning to pursue an Honors option this spring? Read all of this information to successfully submit your proposal.

An honors option is something that you do to go above and beyond the usual expectations in a standard course. It is a faculty-mentored, term-length project that extends the chosen course in a substantive way, whether in depth or in breadth. It is approved in advance by the course professor and the Honors Program office.

Check out all of the information and an application on the webpage by clicking the button. Please be sure to meet the deadline - no extensions will be granted.

Questions? Please reach out to the Honors office at honors@rit.edu.

Honors Option proposals are due on Sunday 1/25 at 11:59pm.

Visionary Voices

Small Group Discussion

Expressions of King's Legacy

Keynote Dr. Eddie Glaude, Jr.

Visionary Voices: Expressions of King's Legacy

Engage In Exclusive Expressions of King's Legacy Programming!

Expressions of King's Legacy programming has been dedicated to celebrating the life and impact of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. for 44 years at RIT. This year, the keynote speaker is scholar, political commentator, and New York Times bestselling author of Begin Again: James Baldwin's America and Its Urgent Lessons for our Own, Dr. Eddie Glaude Jr.

Join Glaude for the keynote address on Thursday, 1/29 from 12:00-2:00pm in the Gordon Field House and learn more and sign up at this link.

Visionary Voices Group Discussion

The Honors Program has been invited to participate in a small group discussion before the address.

This exclusive setting will allow students to engage in dialogue with Glaude Jr. discussing the importance of James Baldwin's contributions to the civil rights movement and how his writings, social criticism, and cultural analysis are relevant and instructive in today's highly politicized world.

1/29 from 11:00-11:45am

Gordon Field House - Reception Room (2nd floor)

Both the small group discussion and keynote address are approved for complementary learning.

Complementary Learning

Please see below our highlight opportunities this week. There are many other's listed on the complementary learning webpage that can fit almost anyone's busy schedule and diverse set of interests.

Complementary Learning is an annual requirement based on the year you entered the Honors program. The submission cycle runs from September to August each year. Please check the Honors Handbook for details about what counts for complementary learning and how to fulfill your annual requirement and remain in good standing in the program.

All complementary learning hours should be submitted contemporaneously, within 30 days of the event or activity, using the submission form linked below or located within the User Tools tab of the Honors website.
