

RIT International Student Services

J-1 Scholars: Transfer to RIT

Instructions: In addition to the host department submitting the DS-2019 Request for Visiting J-1 Faculty & Researchers, scholars hired to or invited by RIT for research or teaching who are currently in the US at another institution in the J-1 status must complete Part 1 of this form. Your current program sponsor (RO/ARO) should then complete Part 2 and submit the completed form to RIT's International Student Services. Questions? Email issj1@rit.edu or call 585-475-6943

Part 1—To be completed by the J-1 scholar

Surname (as on DS-2019): _____

Given name(s) (as on DS-2019): _____

Date of Birth (mm/dd/yyyy): _____ Country of Citizenship: _____

Your email address: _____

RIT host department: _____ RIT start date: _____

Do you have any plans to travel outside US prior to starting at RIT? Yes No

If yes, list travel dates: _____ Do you have J-2 dependents? Yes No

J-2 name(s): _____

Part 2—To be completed by the International Advisor (RO/ARO) of your current institution. RO/ARO, please sign the form and email a scanned copy issj1@rit.edu

Name of Institution: _____ EV Program Number: _____

Exchange Visitor's SEVIS ID#: _____ Start date/first entry to the US: _____

Start and end dates of current program: Start _____ End _____

SEVIS Transfer Release Date: _____ (RIT J-1 EV Program Number: P-1-03528)

Current Subject/Field code: _____ Subject/Field code description: _____

J program category: Research Scholar Professor Short-term Scholar Other: _____

Last date EV will be attending or appointed to your institution: _____

To your knowledge, has the scholar maintained their J exchange visitor status? Yes No

If no, please explain: _____

RO/ARO Name and Title: _____

Telephone: _____ Email: _____

Signature: _____ Date: _____