

Kate's Hour

Lunch with RIT Alumna

Kailey Bradt

From Chemical Engineering student to company Founder & CEO in just three short years, 2015 alumna Kailey Bradt is sharing her journey from engineer to entrepreneur with WE@RIT. Learn how

Kailey took dehydrated shampoo from idea to a business, the RIT resources she made use of, and the challenges and opportunities she's confronted along the way. Check out her website at owahaircare.com! Lunch will be served, so the courtesy of an RSVP is appreciated. Spots are limited.
