RIT SWE Overnight Program

Hosted by RIT's Student Section

SWE Overnight is a shadow program at Rochester Institute of Technology for female high school juniors. This program offers participants the opportunity to explore various engineering fields through hands-on workshops and interaction with current RIT engineering students as well as professors. A mentoring relationship can also be developed through our panel discussion and mentoring lunch, which helps facilitate the transition from high school to college. Our goal is to motivate and inspire young women to pursue a career in engineering. In addition, you will:

- Experience life as a college student
- Spend the night on campus
- Eat in the student dining facilities
- Share fun experiences in various STEM labs
- Make new friends from different areas
- Have fun!

The RIT campus is reachable by car, bus, train, and plane (the Greater Rochester International Airport is only 10 minutes away), thus making it easy for participants traveling from farther away to attend.
